AQUINAS GRAD
Tom Seaman's Chattanooga
Team To Meet Aquinas

Aquinas will renew its football rivalry with Notre Dame Prep of Chattanooga, Tenn., next Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Aquinas Stadium on Ridgeway Ave.
At the victory helm will be a former Aquinas grad, Tom Seaman, who was a star lineman for the "Little Irish" on Harry Wright's 1948 team. Seaman also played guard for Notre Dame University.
Seaman's boys are out to avenge a 1951 loss to Aquinas. In that year they flew all the way to Rochester, only to suffer a 24-0 loss before 14,000 fans. That game was the 10th straight for Mickey Connolly's Irish who were undefeated in their previous season.

OLPH Girl Scouts Entertain Villa Girls

Girl Scout Troop No. 496 of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, entertained 42 girls from St. Joseph Villa at a Halloween Party last week. Part of the troop put on a play while the rest of the girls took care of refreshments and decorations. Singing and games were held.
Transportation was provided by parents and friends of the scouts. Mrs. Irene Cook, leader, was assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Donovan and Mrs. Miss Joanne Czabato and Mrs. Shirley Wohlgenang.

David J. Davin Elected
Press Club Secretary

Notre Dame, Ind.—It has been announced by the Department of Journalism that David J. Davin of 107 Dalkeith St., Rochester 10, has been elected Secretary of the Press Club, the social-professional organization of journalism majors at Notre Dame, for the present school year.

St. Augustine School 11
Defeats Tiny Irish 18-0

Tiny Irish of St. Joseph Villa were defeated by St. Augustine School at the Villa field on Dewey Avenue Saturday.
Fullback Vin Schiano plowed through the Tiny Irish defense to score the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter. In the last few minutes of the second quarter, halfback Tommy Mooney intercepted a pass and ran 80 yards for the second TD. The last six points were gained in the last quarter by halfback Danny Etsler. The Tiny Irish could not break through St. Augustine's strong defense to score a point. Coach of St. Augustine's Eleven were Tom Etsler and Joe Ryan.

National High School Photo Contest
Receives Recognition Of NCWC

The 10th Annual National High School Photographic Awards, a nationwide picture-taking competition sponsored by Eastman Kodak Company and approved by the Contest Committee of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, has been granted additional recognition by the National Catholic Welfare Conference.
Rt. Rev. Mgr. Frederick G. Hochwatz, director of the Department of Education, N.C.W.C., said of the contest:

"The Department of Education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference in general approves the objectives and the operations of the National High School Photographic Awards, which provides an outlet for creative energy.
"Through these Awards every student participating can obtain a real feeling of achievement, and all participants can take pride in their efforts to record more completely that which is significant and interesting in contemporary living."
PROVIDING a total of $5,000 in cash prizes, the 1955 Awards are open to students in daily attendance (grades 9-12) at any public, private, or parochial high school in the United States and its territories. There is no limit

Moderator
3 Troops Added
At Holy Rosary

Three new Brown Troops were added to the Holy Rosary Neighborhood at an Investiture Ceremony in church. A large percentage of the neighborhood, which now totals 348 girls, leaders and committee women in 14 troops, attended.
Four Intermediate, five Brown Leaders and twenty-five committee women received their pins. The new Intermediate Leaders who took over the 45-ups are the Mesdames Marianne Rosa, Nellie Edinger, Veronica Wills, William McCarrie, The Browne Leaders are the Mesdames Irene Reeves, Madeline Sullivan, Ruth Schell, Dolores Boninlander and Anna O'Neil.

Dinner Dance
Planned By Scotland Guild

St. Margaret of Scotland Guild will hold its first dinner dance on Nov. 13 at 8:30 p.m. in the Greece Legion Home on Dorsey Rd. The Rev. Jerome Gallagher, new moderator, will be guest of honor.
CLAN BAND will play Scottish selections and Frank Earle and his orchestra will provide music for dancing. All members are urged to attend and bring a friend. Exceeds will go to the Graymore Fund.
Reservations may be made prior to Tuesday, Nov. 8, by calling GLENWOOD 4871-A or Charlotte 0146-W.

Father Drolet Retreat Master

The Rev. Francis X. Drolet, S.J., Sodality regional director, will conduct a retreat at the Cenacle Retreat House today through Monday for 40 students of Our Lady of Mercy High School.
As a special Marian Year privilege, the girls have been invited to remain Sunday night and following Mass and breakfast on Monday morning, they will leave for Mercy.

Hospital Chaplain Addresses Group

The Rev. Thomas Florack, chaplain of Willard State Hospital, was guest speaker at the annual banquet of St. Francis de Sales Rosary Society last week. "Statistics show," he said, "that one in ten need mental care and one family in four has a mental case at one time or another."
The speaker told about patient activities and particularly mentioned the wonderful effects achieved by the electric shock treatment. He himself has seen the results of the treatment which he describes as "almost miraculous" in effect.
The Rev. John J. Loughlin, moderator, and the Rev. Edward K. Ball, pastor, spoke briefly. Guests included the Rev. J. Walter Carron, the Rev. Valentine Janikowski and Father Achilles of the Capuchin Seminary.
Mrs. Edith Chocchia was chairman.

School Service Program Offered

Miss Hannah Pickering launched the school service program offered to Mercy High School by the New York State Employment Service last week at LeMoyne College, Syracuse.
Miss Pickering, an employment interviewer, explained the program to the six senior guidance classes. The importance of complete and accurate information on application forms was stressed as the seniors filled out the required forms for interviews.
For those who are interested in employment opportunities, interviews will be scheduled every Wednesday beginning Nov. 8. The Employment Service General Aptitude Test Battery will be administered to those girls who are not certain of the type of work for which they are best suited. Test analysis will be given in follow-up interviews.
Referrals for appointments with prospective employers will begin and continue throughout the remainder of the school year.
