Former Model, Convert Receives Carmelite Habit

Miss Marion Backus, a former Kodak model, received the habit of the Carmelite Sisters in Williston, Vt., on Saturday, Oct. 23 after completing her six months' postulancy. She will be called in religion Sister Mary Magdalen of Jesus and Mary.

Miss Backus who entered Carmel of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on April 27, is a convert to Catholicism. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Backus of St. Salome parish. She was a graduate of Irondequoit High School. Before her entrance she worked at the Community Savings Bank.

Rev. Francis A. Marks, pastor of St. James, Trumanburg, spoke at the reception ceremony and selected as his text, "I have found the Messias." Father Marks stressed "the compelling influence of the personality of Christ" which drew Sister Magdalen of Jesus and Mary into the true church and eventually into Carmel after having been instrumental in bringing her beloved parents into the faith.

Sister Magdalen's family and friends were able to see her for three days after the ceremony.

Turkey Supper Set By Society

Holy Name Society of St. Monica Church will hold a hot turkey supper meeting on Monday, Nov. 8 in the basement meeting room at 6:30 p.m. sharp. The supper idea is being tried as an innovation to stimulate attendance at the meetings. The Holy Name Society utilized its telephone brigade to canvass its members regarding attendance at this supper meeting.

After the supper a short business meeting and entertainment will take place. An international ball-casting champion will be on hand to display his prowess in straight and fancy casting techniques. Also, a pistol expert will give a short talk on the development of the hand gun and will complete his part of the program with some sample target shooting.

Members are notified that the business meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. instead of the regular time. After the business meeting and entertainment a full evening of card playing and other pursuits will take place.

Rev. Michael P. O'Brien, moderator, urges all members to observe with promptness the time schedule.
