GOLDEN JUBILEE MARKED

Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel will meet at 8 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 7, at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Orange and Whitney Streets. Twenty-two novices will be professed at the meeting which will be conducted by Rev. Joseph A. Ciffrione, Spiritual Director.

Anyone interested in attending the meeting is invited.

Two Days of Recollection for the tertiaries will be held at the Notre Dame Retreat House on Nov. 20 and 21. Rev. Edward E. Rafferty, C. Cam., Provincial Director of the Third Order, will come from Chicago to conduct the conferences. This will also be his annual visitation to the Chapter.

TERTIARIES OF the Third Order are called upon to do a "little extra" as consecrated children of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. This "something extra" consists of additional prayers and sacrifices not asked of everyone. The role of the Carmelite has always been one of prayer and penance and when they became members of this Order through the secular Third Order, they indicated that they were willing to take up a life of prayer and penance.

"During the month of November when the Poor Souls in Purgatory are implored for aid, we have the greatest opportunity to exercise this role," the announcement said. "A storehouse of spiritual treasure awaits the tertiary who is willing to draw out these indulgences with his prayers and penance."

"All these 'little extras' we can offer: another Rosary, Stations of the Cross, a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, or any sacrifice, will become as pearls to the suffering Souls waiting their release from the fire of Purgatory."

Auburn — Mr. and Mrs. James T. Roddy of 25 Florence St., observed their 50th Wedding Anniversary, last month. A High Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Auburn, at 11 a.m. after which a reception was held in their honor at the family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roddy were married at St. Mary's Church, Auburn, on Oct. 4, 1904. They are parents of three children: John W. Roddy of Auburn and Mrs. Joseph Sartori and Mrs. I. G. Rose of Syracuse. They have seven grandchildren. The couple has been life-long residents of Auburn.

Festival Set At Our Lady Of Victory Church

Annual Fall Festival of Our Lady of Victory Church will be held Saturday and Sunday evenings, Nov. 6 and 7 in the parish school hall.

This year's festival, under the chairmanship of Rene Vanmullen, is designed to please the entire family with a wide variety of games, gifts and prizes to suit every taste, according to a spokesman.

Festivities will begin on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and on Sunday at 5 p.m. A buffet lunch will be served each night.

Profits realized from this year's festival will be placed in a special fund to aid in the expenses incurred in the redecoration of the interior of the church now under way.

Last year's festival was the most successful in the 106-year history of the parish, pointing up the resurgence of new life and interest displayed in the past few years.

Our Lady of Victory, more familiarly known as "The Little French Church," is located on Pleasant St., just around the corner from the front entrance of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce Building.

Mission Guild Sets Meeting Monday

Catholic Mission Guild will meet on Monday, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Columbus Civic Center. Mrs. Alfred Croft will preside. Arrangements will be made for the annual Christmas party, of which Mrs. Carl Hettel is chairman.

Entertainment has been planned by Mrs. George Zeller, social chairman. Mrs. William Sheehan is chairman assisted by the Mesdames George Paul, Louis Korth, Henry Lenhart, Louis Boss.

Book Review Slated By Rosary Society

S.M.S. Society To Mark 50 Years Of Progress

Seneca Falls — Annual banquet of the S.M.S. Society which this year will commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Lodge will be held Saturday, Nov. 6. Dinner is set for 7:30 p.m. at the Seneca Hotel on South Street, the date being just 50 years to the day of the first meeting of the organization.

Judge Charles Lambise of the State Court of Claims will be speaker on this golden jubilee occasion. Peter Giovannetti is chairman.

Due to the unprecedented response and limited facilities available the affair had to be limited to members of the organization only with the expected attendance of well over 200 persons.

Among the other guests to be present are: (honorary) Adolph Casper, will be Fred Erdewohl and Natalie Babl, the only Charter members; Rev. John P. O'Brien, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, will give the invocation. Also present will be the S.M.S. auxiliary president, Mrs. Irene Giovannetti and secretary of the Auxiliary, Miss Josephine Roswell.

Following the banquet, there will be dancing with music by Peter Beattini and orchestra.

AOH Auxiliary Slates Card Party

Young Ladies Auxiliary #23 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will sponsor a card party on Friday, Nov. 12. All members and friends are invited to play either at the club, 48 Alexander St. or at home. There will be prizes and refreshments.
