Elmira Charities Unit To Mark Silver Jubilee

BY MARY E. FITZGERALD
Executive Director - Catholic Family Service

Cornelius J. Milliken, General Chairman of the Silver Jubilee Banquet of Catholic Family Service, today announced that table reservations will be made in order of paid receipts received at the Agency Office at 312 Lake St.

Tables in the lower ballroom are being assigned and the upper room will be reserved under the same plan. Guests are urged to purchase tickets immediately as capacity of hotel will be reached within the next week.

EMERGENCY SPEAKERS at the Banquet on Monday, Nov. 22, will be the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Nicholas H. Wegner, the internationally known director of Boys' Town, Neb.

Serving on the planning committee are: the Rev. Nicholas P. Allesto, Rev. Albert V. Ryan, Mr. Milliken, William C. Emerson, Miss Mary E. FitzGerald, Atty. James L. Burke, J. Joseph MacNamara, Atty. John D. Flawley, Recorder Daniel J. Donahoe and James W. O'Hara Jr.

The BANQUET will mark the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Elmira Catholic Charities. A few years ago the organization's name was changed to the Catholic Family Service.

Traditionally the annual banquets have been occasions at which prominent national church and lay authorities in the fields of social work, education and literature have been guest speakers.

In the past, such figures as Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, the Rev. Robert A. Gannon, former president of Fordham University, the late Rt. Rev. Edward Flanagan, founder of Boys' Town and the predecessor of Monsignor Wegner, have filled the speaker's role. Last year, Marie Killilea, author of the best seller "Karin," was the guest speaker.

For this year, speakers are Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, the Rev. Robert A. Gannon, former president of Fordham University, the late Rt. Rev. Edward Flanagan, founder of Boys' Town and the predecessor of Monsignor Wegner, have filled the speaker's role. Last year, Marie Killilea, author of the best seller "Karin," was the guest speaker.

Members will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8:30 Mass in Our Lady of Lourdes Church and the breakfast will follow in the church hall.

Rev. Leo G. Schwab, pastor and spiritual director of Elmira Assembly, will also address the group. William D. Hovey and Joseph H. Fitzpatrick are co-chairmen of arrangements.

Peleg C. Baker, faithful navigator will head the committee on reservations.

Fourth Degree Elmira K of C Lists Speaker
Judge Daniel Donahoe of the Elmira Recorder's Court will be the guest speaker at the Communion breakfast following the annual Memorial Mass for deceased members of Elmira Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus.

Dr. and Mrs. J. McNamara Mark 50th Anniversary
Cornell - Dr. and Mrs. John A. McNamara quietly celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 26 at 184 Wall St., their home since 1906.

They were showered with cards, flowers and other gifts from scores of friends.

Miss Laura Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Grant of Ithaca, became the bride of John A. McNamara, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McNamara, also of Ithaca, Oct. 26, 1904, the ceremony being performed in Ithaca by the Rev. Alfred J. Evans.

Mrs. McNamara had attended the Ithaca schools and the Ithaca Conservatory of Music which is now Ithaca College. For a time, she was soprano soloist at Sage Chapel, Cornell University.

DR. McNAMARA was graduated from Ithaca High School and Cornell University.

He is a charter member and past exalted ruler of Cornberg Lodge of Elks which was instituted May 9, 1907. He became chairman of the Cornberg Americanization Committee in 1925 and still holds that position.

At the time he accepted the chairmanship, he acted at the suggestion of John T. Price, then grand exalted ruler of the Order of Elks, and was largely instrumental in the establishment of the Cornberg Americanization Hospital.

He has worked among polio patients and their families for nearly 12 years and will continue to do so.

He took time out on the day of the celebration to visit a young patient at the Cornell Hospital.

Anthony Altieri Services Held; Classes Started

BY ELIZABETH TUCCIARDI

Waverly - A solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated at St. James Church Tuesday at 9 a.m. following funeral services at 8:30 from the Altieri Funeral Home, Sayre, Pa., for Anthony Altieri, 51, of 553 Clark Street, Waverly, who died Friday, Oct. 29, 1954.

Born in Sassimoro, Italy, on May 28, 1903, Mr. Altieri came to the United States 35 years ago and has owned and operated the Electric Shoe Repair Shop on Broad St. Waverly, for 30 years. He was a member of St. James Church and the Moose Lodge of Waverly.

Besides his wife, Laura, he is survived by a son, Anthony N. Altieri, at home; two brothers, Fugo and Tito Altieri of Sassimoro, Italy; a sister, Mrs. Armando Yamicelli of Sassimoro; four nephews and a niece of Sassimoro, and an uncle, Joseph Altieri, of South Waverly.

Requiem of the Rosary was held Monday evening by the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan.

Celebrant of the Solemn High Mass was the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor; deacon was the Rev. Guy Wertz, assistant pastor; sub-deacon was the Rev. Anthony Novello, assistant pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, Sayre, Pa.

Burial was in St. James Cemetery, with Father Wertz officiating at the grave.

Waverly - Catholicism classes were begun last week for the Catholic children living in rural areas who do not attend a parochial school. Rev. Guy Wertz, assistant pastor of St. James, had a group of ten children in Barton, and twelve, Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gundersman at Chemung.

Devotions Stated To Honor Our Lady Of Fatima
