Former Model, Convert Receives Carmelite Habit

Miss Marion Backus, a former Kodak model, received the habit of the Carmelite Sisters in Williston, Vt., on Saturday, Oct. 23 after completing her six months' postulancy. She will be called in religion, Sister Mary Magdalen of Jesus and Mary.

Miss Backus who entered Carmel of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on April 27, is a convert to Catholicism. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Backus of St. Sotome parish. She was a graduate of Irondequoit High School before her entrance she worked at the Community Savings Bank.

Ray Francis A. Marks, pastor of St. James, Trumansburg, spoke at the reception ceremony and selected as his text, "I have found the Messiah." Father Marks stressed "the compelling influence of the personality of Christ" which drew Sister Magdalen of Jesus and Mary into the true church and eventually into Carmel after having been instrumen-

Thomas More Forum Lists Shakespeare's 'Caesar'

Players Incorporated of Washington, D. C. will present Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" at Our Lady of Mercy High School auditorium, Blossom Rd., on Saturday, Nov. 6 at 8:15 p.m.

Announcement of the theatre event was made today by the Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, director of the Thomas More Lecture Forum, which is sponsoring the event.

All members of Players Incorporated are graduate students of the Speech and Drama Department of Catholic University of America, Washington, noted for many Broadway hits which have originated from its University Theatre.

The C. U. drama department is under the direction of the Rev. Gilbert V. Parke, O.F.M., one of the most prominent figures in American theatre today.

IN FIVE scenes of the nation, Players Incorporated has given more than 50 performances of Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing," "Othello," "Macbeth" and "Twelfth Night"; "The Arms and the Man," "The Miller's "School for Wives" and "The Miser." This season's offering is Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."

Members of the Thomas More Lecture Forum will be able to attend the performance Saturday on their membership tickets. The public may procure tickets at the school auditorium box office. There are no reserved seats for the performance.

Tickets for the presentation, all students at Our Lady of

Spaghetti Supper, Festival Slated At Nazareth College

A spaghetti supper, prepared entirely by the students themselves, will be served Friday evening, Nov. 12 at Nazareth College as a highlight of Mission Day, sponsored by the Fremont Mission Unit of Nazareth.

The supper will be served from 5 to 6 p.m. and from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the college cafeteria. Tickets are $1.25.

Immediately following the meal, a festival will be held in the gymnasium with booths for groceries, stuffed animals, fruit baskets, fancy items, surprise baseball, cards and many others. Proceeds will provide aid for missionary activity at home and abroad, and for foreign students at the college.

Turkey Supper Set By Society

Holy Name Society of St. Monica Church will hold a hot turkey supper meeting on Monday, Nov. 8 in the basement meeting room at 6:30 p.m.—sharp.

The supper idea is being tried as an innovation to stimulate attendance at the meetings. The Holy Name Society utilized its telephone brigade to canvass its members regarding attendance at this supper meeting.

After the supper a short business meeting and entertainment will take place. An inspirational ball-casting champion will be on hand to display his prowess in straight and fancy casting techniques. Also, a pistol expert will give a short talk on the development of the hand gun and will complete his part of the program with some sample target shooting.

Members are notified that the business meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. instead of the regular time. After the business meeting and entertainment a full evening of card playing and other pursuits will take place.

Rev. Michael P. O'Brien, moderator, urges all members to observe with promptness the time schedule.
