The dinner will follow a reception at 8:30 p.m. Toastmaster at the dinner will be Emmett J. Schnepf, West Central New York district commander of the Alhambra. Donald E. Woerner, past grand commander is testimonial chairman.

Sargent will be honored for his long service to the Alhambra and particularly for the outstanding achievement of his administration, erection of the bronze plaque memorializing the site of St. Patrick Cathedral on the Eastman Kodak Company Camera Works Building, at Platt St. corner of Plymouth Ave. North. Richard J. Brown has charge of dinner arrangements. Tickets and reservations are in the hands of George R. Powers, GENEE 5886-R. Reservations close today.

Saturday Movie Programs Held By Holy Name Society

Holy Name Society of St. Monica Parish is currently sponsoring a series of Saturday afternoon movie programs for children. More than 400 children were reported in attendance at the initial performance last week. James Verman, secretary and organization chairman, reported that a refreshment stand was made available at the movie and that additional films and shorts were booked for succeeding weeks operations.

More than 325 members were reported in attendance at the supper meeting held by the group this week. Group singing followed. The Rev. Michael P. O'Brien expressed his delight at the number of men present. The Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald Lambert spoke briefly commenting on the spirit of the men and the opportunities they have of doing good within the society and within the parish.

Next Communion Sunday of the group is scheduled for Nov. 21.

Court Of Awards Set By Girl Scout Troops

7,000 Unreserved Seats Offered For Aquinas Game

Athletic Department and Mission Society of Aquinas Institute have joined together in an effort to boost the dwindling crowds that have watched Aquinas lose four of seven games played thus far this season.

This weekend an effort will be made to sell 7,000 unreserved tickets to the Aquinas-Boys Town football game scheduled for Thanksgiving Day in the Aquinas Memorial Stadium on Ridgeway Ave. Tickets will sell for $1 and the money will be divided between Aquinas athletics, Aquinas missions and Boys Town. AQUINAS BOUNCED back from three straight defeats last Sunday to whip Notre-Dame Prep from Chattanooga, Tenn. 19-6. For the first time this season, the Aquinas quarterbacks were allowed to call their own signals and with the inspiring cheers of the student body, the Aquinas signal men led their team to a much needed victory. Aquinas football teams have never had a losing season and a victory over Boys Town is necessary to uphold that tradition. In four meetings to date, Boys Town has always ended up on the losing end by scores of 29-18, 21-6, 19-7 and last year 13-12.

Both teams are eager for a victory-Aquinas to maintain its tradition of never having a losing season and Boys Town because they have never beaten Aquinas. The new spirit shown by Aquinas last Sunday plus the record of Boys Town this year should make it a thriller.

Central Verein Schedules German Night Celebration

Catholic Central Verein will sponsor a German Night at the German House on Gregory St. on Saturday, Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. The 100th anniversary of the founding of the group will bring both the State and National conventions here next year, and this affair is being held to help finance the conventions. TYPICAL GERMAN entertainment will be a treat for Germans as well as others, according to the group. There will be numbers by the Bavarian Schupplatters, that is folk dancing in Lederhosen and Dirndls under the direction of Alfred Kroeger, born. The dancing group of the Schwabian Society will present native dances from their part of homeland under the direction of Eugenie Kleinkecht. The Arbeiteraengerech will sing "Zillertal", a gay folk song from the Alps with yodeling, and "The Happy Wanderer" under the direction of Alfred Kroeger. The rest of the evening will be filled with old fashioned and modern dancing to the tunes of the Kolping Orchestra under the direction of Henry Heister. Mrs. William Roeger and her committee will serve German specialties including German potato salad and Bauernwurst, and coffee and Kuchen. Members of the Catholic Kolping Society will serve the refreshments under the chairmanship of Adolph Rister. William Roeger, general chairman, assures us that everything is set for a grand time and lots of gemuetlichkeit.

On Sunday, Nov. 21, the Auxiliary will observe its corporate attendance at Mass and Communion at St. Patrick Church at 8 a.m. in memoriam to its deceased members. Reservations for the Communion Breakfast to follow may be made to the president or to Mrs. Emma Muldoon by Thursday, Nov. 18. The Christmas Party will take place Monday, Dec. 13, preceded by a supper at 7 p.m. A special program and exchange of gifts will be featured with the officers in charge of arrangements.

Luncheon was served by the social committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leo Engle and Mrs. Andrew Gould, Jr., assisted by the Mesdames Harold Applin, Walter Blum, Lester Gould, Lester Gross, Lester Haver, James Kelly, James Mark, Joseph Mahaney, Fred McLean and Casimer Krochmal.

Rings Issued To Juniors At Girl's College

JUNIOR RINGS received by the members of the Junior class of Nazareth College received their college rings in the school auditorium, Thursday, Nov. 11. THE RING ceremony accented the Marian Year theme. The entering students carried white carnations which were presented by each girl to Our Lady. The rings were of blue ribbons. Sister Rose Angela, Dean of the college, spoke on the significance of the ceremony and presented each girl with her ring. Rev. William H. Shannon, chaplain of the college, blessed the rings. General chairman of the ceremony was Kay Griffin of Hornell. Shirley Scamp and Mary Ann Reynolds of Rochester were in charge of invitations, and Mary Lou Davis of Geneva, of program. Decorations were done by the Junior Class Art Department. Donna Ryan of Phelps is class president.
