

IN HONOR OF MARY

A PERPETUAL LIGHT burns in front of the Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, in St. Joseph's Church, "The Sanctuary Center," in Rochester, to commemorate the Marian Year. The light will be continued after the Marian Year closes.

St. Joseph's Lists Novena To Immaculate Conception

St. Joseph's, the Eucharistic Shrine in downtown Rochester, will close the Marian Year with a Solemn Novena in honor of the Immaculate Conception.

The Novena will open on Tuesday, Nov. 30, and close on the Feast itself, Rev. William Jamison, C.S.S.R., one of the Retreat Masters at the Notre Dame Retreat House will conduct the Novena. Father Jamison is a speaker with wide experience here in the States and in Puerto Rico. For five years he conducted the Perpetual Help Novena over the radio in Puerto Rico.

TIME OF SERVICES: Each day Novena prayers will be recited after the 8 a.m. Mass, and at 3 and 5-30 p.m. each day there will be regular Novena services with a short sermon and Benediction.

A blue light, mounted on a beautiful bronze pedestal, has been installed at Our Lady's Shrine to burn perpetually in memory of the Marian Year. "The devout clients of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, keep fresh flowers on the Shrine in humble thanksgiving for favors received during this wonderful year," a Chaplainist Father said, this week.
