Spiritual Strength Need Of Youth, Says Fr. Flynn

Geneva—While praising the many fine social and athletic programs for young people, the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, diocesan moderator of the Rochester Holy Name Union, and editor of the Catholic-Courier Journal, warned that "what they need is a strength from within—a spiritual strength."
 Father Flynn, editor of the Diocesan newspaper, spoke before the supper-meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Francis de Sales parish, Thursday, in the school hall to 140 members. The meeting featured the conclusion of a reorganization program undertaken last April. Installation of new officers, and reports on the past affairs of the Society constituted the business end of the meeting.
 Installed as officers were: James Ninestine as President; Dr. Charles Mascari as Vice-President; Richard McDonough as Secretary.
SPEAKERS included Very Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis, Louis McAnigan, retiring president and nominating committee chairman; Anthony Cecere, retiring secretary; Paul Tansy, supper meeting chairman; James Ninestine, newly named president and Father Flynn, Rev. Walter Caron, society moderator presented the speakers.
 In his talk Father Flynn reminded the men that as a group they represented the all important source of assistance to their priests that every flourishing parish must have. But as a Society their chief assistance to the parish was in the spiritual strength they represented as men dedicated to their faith, to whom the person of Jesus Christ is a living reality of today, not a 'was' of history.
SPEAKING OF the current problem of juvenile delinquency, Father Flynn mentioned the many fine movements in the way of social and athletic programs that are being offered to assist our young people.
 "But when our youth is faced with the temptations of the day that lead to delinquency, the temptation to drink, to steal, to lounge living, at such times it is not the knowledge of how to throw a sharp-breaking curve or how to toss a fifty-yard pass that helps them; what they need then is a strength from within—a spiritual strength such as they see in you men dedicated to all
