Hotel Rochester Manager Comes from Grand Rapids

Paul F. Morris assumed management today of the Hotel Rochester after 16 months in Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he was manager of the Rowe Hotel.

Mr. Morris has been very active in Catholic circles in Grand Rapids during his stay there, being a member of the Knights of Columbus and the sponsor of an annual Thanksgiving party for the children of St. John's Home, operated by the Dominican Sisters for the Catholic Service Bureau of Grand Rapids.

He was instrumental in arranging for the 1953 Convention of the Department of Michigan Catholic War Veterans, to be held at the Rowe Hotel in May and served on the committee to welcome Bishop Allen J. Riboldi when he came to Grand Rapids this year for installation.

He also participated in many community activities while in Grand Rapids, including: president of the Grand Rapids Hotel Association, director of the Safety Council, member of the policy committee of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the Theater in the Round and the annual Santa Claus Girls Christmas party.

Kolping Society Lists Plans Honoring Priest Founder

The Catholic Kolping Society of Rochester has set plans of celebration honoring the founder, the Rev. Adolph Kolping, whose cause for beatification is being forwarded by the Vatican.

Members will participate in the Family Rosary for Peace in St. Francis of Assisi Church on Saturday, Dec. 4, at which time the Rev. Joseph Cirincione will offer the prayer for Father Kolping's beatification.

A CELEBRATION will be held at the Notre Dame Retreat House on Sunday, Dec. 5, with Leo P. Jensen presiding. The Very Rev. Gerald Whelan, C.S.S.R., rector of St. Joseph's Church, will be the principal speaker. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Kelly, Vicarary Pastor of the Kolping Society, will be guest of honor.

The Society, President, the Very Rev. Francis Kenny, C.S.S.R., will offer a Mass for the beatification of Father Kolping in the Chapel of Notre Dame Retreat House on Sunday, Dec. 19 at 8 a.m. at which members will receive Communion in a body.
