Coming Council Sponsors Movie

Corning - Corning Council of the National Council of Catholic Women will sponsor a showing of the Academy Award movie, "The Song of Bernadette" at the Fox Theatre, Dec. 7 and 8.

Mrs. Norman Murray, president, heads the committee in charge of the project and has named Mrs. Glenn Jamison, Miss Julia Kelley and Mary Mikolajczak co-chairman of ticket sales.

Adult and children tickets will be available to Dec. 7 from committee members and workers and will also be available at the Knights of Columbus Home, Frances Hat and Dress Shop and Brown's Cigar Store in Corning and at the Mary Kirkland Shoppe at Painted Post.

Mt. Savior Prior To Address Group

The Very Rev. Damasus Wizen, O.S.B. prior of Mt. Savior Monastery, Elmira, will address members of St. Scholastica League at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 5 at the Catholic Daughters of America headquarters above Kertz's Drug Store, Church and State Sts.

Subject of his talk will be "The Christmas Spirit".

The St. Scholastica League is a group of ladies in Elmira, Corning and vicinity who are associated with the monastery and follow the Benedictine motto of "pray and work" by remembering the community daily in prayer and helping the monks by laundering linens, giving food for special occasions, furnishing the household necessities, sewing, mending and other helpful works.
