

Society's Work Gift To Hospital

PERPETUAL HELP SOCIETY of St. Mary's Hospital assembled for Christmas party in the Lounge of the Nurses Home. Organized in February 1953 the society sews for the hospital and conducts card parties to raise funds. Each year profits are given in the form of a gift at Christmas and Easter to the Mother Superior to be used at her discretion. Standing next to Sister Marlene, Administrator, on right is Mrs. Mortimer F. Donovan, 60 Earl St., president. The other Sister is Sister Miriam.

Captain McMillen Receives Promotion

Captain George F. McMillen, U.S.M.C., was promoted to the rank of commander recently in the Army. Captain McMillen, a graduate of St. Bonaventure Seminary, served in the Army from 1942 to 1946 and returned again when the Korean conflict began.

Since March, 1953 he has served aboard the cruiser USS Albany.
