

WHAT'S DOING AT THE DAILY

Apples -- Apples -- Apples

By Mary Talley Daily

We don't claim to be nutrition experts at our house, but there's one holiday trick we swear by—a box of apples.

No, there were several Christmas presents plus a box of apples for our own use, kept crisp and fresh on the side porch, covered over with an old blanket.

During the holiday afternoons, when youngsters assemble, they make wonderful "apples," either with a few crackers or just by themselves. And at night, after lights, when everybody's been nibbling all day, long, they are grand company while reading one of the Christmas books as you sit before the fire.

With all the dental troubles that have been popping up around our house, we're glad to know that the apples are something that children, young folks and all the rest of us can eat to our heart's content without the fear of causing tooth decay—that they really help clean the teeth.

THE BOX IS down to its last layer now and we're surprised as we always are, at how long it has lasted and the many treats it has provided. Before it gets lower, though, Ginny has stashed away a good dozen in her special hiding place in the cold attic.

"I'm going to take one to Sister every single day," she declares. "Sisters like apples just like everybody else."

The teenagers, of course, wouldn't resort to anything so obvious as apple polishing with mid-year's coming up, though, goodness knows, it would be fine to think that a few apples could turn the tide that way.

One year we tried to substitute a box of fancy oranges but it didn't work at all. The oranges were good all right, but what a mess! Bits of orange peel were everywhere, orange seeds silted around on the floor, the juice made fingers and everything else sticky, and the house had the perpetual smell of burnt oranges.

Apples do the trick. Maybe it's an inherited liking—from Mother Eve.

AMONG WOMEN

To Know God

By Mary Lannon Snyder

I think one would be correct in stating that New Year's resolutions, no matter how phrased, are made for what intention.

Since our catechism days we have known that the reason for our life on this earth was to know God, to love Him and serve Him on this earth and to be happy with Him forever in Heaven.

ONE WAY to know God is by study and spiritual reading. In this "The Formation of St. Lay Apostles" the Rev. Francis W. Wendell, O.P. has written: "Spiritual and social reading (which he has defined earlier in the book as possibly sociological or purely intellectual reading) disposes ultimately for the love of God since it increases knowledge of God either directly or indirectly."

With this in mind, we should resolve to give a small part of each day to reading and study. The old criticism that "good Catholic books were too expensive for the average home" is no longer a valid excuse for not having good Catholic reading available in every home. LET ME STATE here that I am not in the employ of the Eumen Books as a publisher for their publications; however, I feel that more people should know about these fine books. A few weeks ago I wrote of the Eumen Book edition of "The Imitation of Christ." This brought me many inquiries as to where the books could be purchased. In larger cities they may be purchased in bookstores, church pamphlet racks and religious bookstores. For the benefit of those living in smaller communities I shall give the publisher's address: Paluch Publications, 1800 Winnemac Avenue, Chicago, 40, Ill.

I had intended in today's column to discuss a new Eumen Publication of "The Queen's Way" which is a simplified edition of St. Louis de Montfort's classic work "True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary." The subtitle of the book is "Jesus Through Mary" proclaims the manner in which we may come to know and love God better. FOR THOSE who would like a more detailed introduction to the book I shall plan to write it in next week. Please notice I state I shall write of the devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and not to the devotion to the Mother. For those who are familiar with the devotion this edition will be a refreshing review; for those who are not acquainted with it it is a wonderful value medium.

Blank Prayers For Pope New Orleans (NC)—Rabbi Julian B. Fishman of Temple Sinai offered a prayer for His Holiness Pope Pius XII's recovery from illness at St. Louis service. "Grant him strength, he prayed, "for recovery and renew the vigor of his tireless hands always extended in blessing. What he shall be restored we shall rejoice. Have we not all one Father? Hath not one God created us?"
