Family Communion Slated By Ithaca Parishioners

Ithaca — A Family Communion Breakfast in the Parish Hall is being planned by the newly organized Holy Name Society of Immaculate Conception Church to mark Family Communion Sunday in this Ithaca parish on Jan. 8.

Following the 8, 9 and 10 a.m. Masses on the Feast of the Holy Family Jan. 9, all families participating in Family Communion Sunday are invited to the breakfast in the parish hall by the Holy Name men.

EXTENSIVE PLANS are being made under the direction of John Barrett and Carl Yengo, assisted by a large committee of Holy Name members. The cost will be the same for each family, $1.50. Parishioners will be given the opportunity of making reservations Sunday, Jan. 2 at all the Masses.

The members of the Holy Name Society in their first project since reorganization hope this will be the beginning of a custom which will grow through the years to promote more active participation in Family Communion Sunday and to create an atmosphere of closer coordination between the parishioners.

Whether or not all families accept the invitation of the Holy Name Society, the Holy Name Society and the Athletic Association of Holy Redeemer Parish are co-sponsoring Holy Redeemer Night at the Sport Arena on Saturday, Jan. 2 when the Rochester Royals meet the New York Knickerbockers.

The evening is in appreciation to Roy Harrison and the entire Royal basketball team for their cooperation in attending the Father and Son Communion Breakfast held at the parish.

An estimated 75 to 100 are expected to attend the game and have a block of seats. Tickets may be obtained from Ed Schonherr at Baker 8198.
