Rites Conducted For Mrs. Stehle

Requiem Mass was offered for Mrs. Louella C. Stehle of 78 Chelsea Rd. at St. Thomas Church on Wednesday, Jan. 12. His Excellency, Bishop Kearney gave the final blessing at the church.

Celebrant of the Mass was the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard K. Burns, pastor. The Rev. John A. Moryan was deacon and the Rev. Daniel V. Hogan, subdeacon.

A member of the Third Order of St. Dominic and the Rosary Society, she is survived by her husband, Fred J.; two daughters, Mrs. Edwin W. Hart and Ann C. Stehle; seven grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. William Davis, Sister Germana of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Mrs. W. A. Mance and Loretta Bauer; brother, William A. Bauer; several nieces and nephews.

In the sanctuary were the Reverend Fathers Donald J. Murphy, Michael P. O'Brien, Arthur E. Ratigan, Gerald Dunn, Eugene H. McFarland, John E. McCafferty, John Rossi and J. Beecher Sullivan.

Anthony Heaney Named To Public Relations Post

It was announced this week by the board of directors of the Rochester Area Multiple Sclerosis Association that Anthony B. Heaney has been appointed to the post of public relations director of the group.

For the past year Heaney has been associated with the local chapter in the capacity of editor of their monthly publication, The RAMS News. This past summer he conducted the publicity campaign for the successful "Milkman's March".

A graduate of DeSales High School in Geneva, and Niagara University, he served as high school reporter for The Geneva Daily Times and the Catholic Courier-Journal. While at Niagara University he served in various positions on the school newspaper and directed the publicity for several campus organizations.

Upon his graduation from Niagara, Heaney studied extensively at The Fordham University School of Communication Arts.

For the past year he has served as director of news information at Our Lady of Victory Church.

He is employed at the Delco Appliance Division of the General Motors Corporation, is married to the former Kathryn Leahy of Bayside, L.I., and is the father of a seven months old son, Donald John.

A most important member of the Heaney family is "Boots", Tony's Seeing-Eye Guide Dog.

Promotions Announced At Rochester Savings

Following the 123rd annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Rochester Savings Bank, Thomas H. Hawks, president, announced six staff promotions.

Elected assistant vice presidents were Gordon E. Wegman, a graduate of old Cathedral High, and Fred J. Wagner, an Aquinas Institute graduate. Elected assistant treasurers were Leon R. Travis and Charles E. Smith. Elected assistant secretaries were Wilburt A. Howard and Wilson H. DaBoll.

Wegman joined the staff of the Rochester Savings Bank in 1920 as Clearing House Clerk and rose steadily through the ranks. He has been assistant secretary since 1947, and manager of the Ridge-Clinton Office of the Bank since September 8, 1952, when that branch was opened.

Wagner joined the staff of the old Mechanics Savings Bank in 1930. In 1943, he left the banking field and became associated with the Stromberg Carlson Company in the cost accounting department. In 1946, he returned to banking and joined the staff of the Rochester Savings Bank in the Mortgage Accounting department. He was appointed a supervisor in the mortgage department in 1948, and in July 1951 was elected assistant treasurer of the bank.

Mass, Reception Highlight Wedding Anniversary

Geneva—A reception New Year's Eve and an anniversary Mass on New Year's Day highlighted the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chacchia, 52 Genesee St., Geneva.

The reception was held from 8 to 11 p.m. and was attended by 150 persons. The Mass was celebrated in St. Francis de Sales Church at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Walter Carron. A family dinner was held New Year's Day with the Rev. Edward K. Ball, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, as a guest.

Judge Nathan D. Lapham, who was present for the reception, called attention to Mr. Chacchia's business ability and particularly to his record as county and city court interpreter for the past 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Chacchia were married Dec. 31, 1904 in St. Francis de Sales Church by the late Rev. William A. McDonald, former pastor of the church.

Mrs. Chacchia, is the former Rose Viglione. Both Mr. and Mrs. Chacchia were born in Biccari, province of Foggia, Italy. They came to Geneva in 1901.

Mr. Chacchia has been in the real estate and insurance business in Geneva for the past 32 years.

They have two sons, M. Maurice Chacchia, and S. Danny Chacchia; and four daughters, Mrs. Armand Felicetti, Mrs. Anthony Quartaro, Mrs. Joseph Crupi, and Miss Edith Chacchia; and eleven grandchildren.

Dr. Terrence To Address Family Guidance Group

Dr. Christopher F. Terrence, director of the Rochester State Hospital, will speak before the Family Guidance Group of Immaculate Conception Parish on Monday, Jan. 17 at 8:15 p.m. in the school hall.

He will discuss the topic "Family Life and Mental Health" as a lead-off of the series of meetings which will feature family conditions as caused by and as a result of mental attitudes.

"Members of the Family Guidance Group share the general feeling that a healthy mental outlook is of vital importance to all —and a mystery to almost all," a spokesman said.

DR. TERRENCE is chairman of the Mental Health Committee of the Health Association and a member of its speakers' Bureau. He has served as psychiatrist at the Brooklyn Child Guidance Center and as part-time clinical professor in the Department of Psychology at the University of Fordham.

Before coming to Rochester, he served as Assistant of Clinical Psychiatry at the New York State University of Medical School in New York City.

A film, chosen by Dr. Terrence, will be shown at the meeting, and a discussion period will follow. All are invited. The grade mothers group will serve refreshments.
