Former Brockport Church To Become Auditorium-Gym

Bolger Hall, which was completed in 1855 as the original Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Brockport, is being remodeled and renovated for use as a gymnasium and auditorium.

UNDER THE direction of the Rev. Dr. Edward J. Lintz, pastor, men of the parish are doing much of the work installing showers, restrooms and other equipment. The building will serve the needs of the athletic program of the parochial school and will also offer recreational opportunities to other parish organizations.

Women of the parish are doing their part in holding Baked Food Sales in the hall on Friday, Feb. 11 and Friday, Feb. 18 from 2 to 7 p.m.

Members of the parish hope to complete a century of parochial progress by expanding their school to eight grades and kindergarten.

A drive for funds for this purpose will close on May 8 as part of the centenary celebration of the parish.

'Sea Magic' Theme Slated

Decorated in the theme "Sea Magic," the Nazareth College gym will be the scene of the annual Sodality semi-formal to be held Feb. 18 from 8 to 12 p.m. Music will be provided by Bill Field and his orchestra.

General chairman is Mary Jo Shuler of Holcomb. Her committee includes: Invitations, Carol Sanderson of Rochester; tickets, Helen Bauer of Rochester; decorations, Margaret Galavotti of Rochester; refreshments, Judy Kowalsky of Rochester; music, John Kowalsky of Rochester; and general order, Candice Pilla of Trenton, N.J.

Mrs. Leonard Rites Held At Holy Cross

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Rites, 67 of 111 Edgemoor Dr., who died Wednesday, Feb. 2, 1955, were held at the Augustin M. J. Funeral Home, and in Holy Cross Church on Saturday, Feb. 5.

Funeral Mass was celebrated by Rev. Henry C. Bieler, uncle of the deceased. Her cousin, Robert Bieler, Richard Bieler, Bernard Bieler, George Mathis, Walter DeLoe, and Albert Bartel, were best men.

Mrs. Leonard is survived by her husband, Frank; one son, Marion; one step-son, Frank; one step-daughter, Nita; her father, Wendell Bieler; five sisters, Mrs. John (Eleanor) Schipper, Mrs. Charles (Catherine) Kuntz, Mrs. Josephine Bieler, Mrs. Robert (Cecilia) Gerhardt, and Mrs. George (Rita) Freeman, East Rochester; five brothers, William, Edward, George, Joseph, and Ralph Bieler.

Interment was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Final blessing at the grave was given by the Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell, assisted by Father Bieler.

Deaths Of 2 Former N.D. Sisters From City Reported

Deaths of two highly esteemed School Sisters of Notre Dame who served in Rochester, Sister Mary Conrad, a native and Sister Mary Benedict are reported from Maryland, this week.

Sister Mary Benedict, S.N.D., died on Monday, Jan. 17, 1955 at the age of 85 in St. Matthew's Convalescent Hospital, Brooklyn. She was a native of Maryland and resided in the following Thursday in the Mother Church with burial in the Villa Maria Cemetery, North Cliff, Md.

Sister Benedict started her teaching career in St. Joseph School, Rochester, and from here went to Brooklyn, Baltimore and back to Brooklyn where she taught at St. Matthew's School for 25 years. She retired eight years ago as a teacher but remained at the convent.

In 1948 Sister Benedict celebrated her Golden Jubilee at which time she came to Rochester where a large garden party was given for her at St. Joseph's attended by 70 of her former pupils. She was looking forward to returning to Rochester in 1950 to celebrate her Diamond Jubilee.

She had been in good health and her sudden death was a great shock to her friends.

Sister Mary Conrad, S.N.D., who for 20 years had been school supervisor for the School Sisters of Notre Dame in Rochester, died Friday, Feb. 4, 1955 at the Motherhouse in Baltimore, Md.

Sister Conrad, a native of Rochester, had been superior and principal of three of our Rochester schools. In 1933 Sister came to take charge of Holy Family School as principal and it was here that she received her appointment as community supervisor—a post Sister fulfilled willingly and conscientiously. Sister taught in Holy Ghost School, Coldwater, until Oct. 27, when the Mother Superior called her to Baltimore because of illness.

Sister Conrad is survived by her twin sister, Miss Teresa Kambacher, who was present at the funeral, which took place Monday, Feb. 7, at Villa Maria Cemetery, North Cliff, Md.

The next funeral will be held in St. Boniface Church on March 6 between the seventh and eighth district finalists who will include Sunday's first-place winner in Geneva, Conrad Gill of Penn Yan.

She was a past president of St. Mary's League and a member of the Catholic Women's Club, the Good Shepherd Guild, Nazareth College Guild and the Rosary Society of St. Augustine Church.

She is survived by her husband, Mark H. Tuohy; two sons, Mark Jr. and Robert, who is with the Air Force in Japan; a daughter, Mrs. William J. Meyers Jr., six grandchildren.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Tuohy

Funeral services for Mrs. Mark Tuohy of 26 Lower St. were held Wednesday from Corbett's Funeral Home, 10 St. Augustine Church, Mrs. Tuohy, who was active in several Catholic organizations, died Feb. 5, 1955. She was 56.

She was a past president of St. Mary's League and a member of the Catholic Women's Club, the Good Shepherd Guild, Nazareth College Guild and the Rosary Society of St. Augustine Church.

She is survived by her husband, Mark H. Tuohy; two sons, Mark Jr. and Robert, who is with the Air Force in Japan; a daughter, Mrs. William J. Meyers Jr., six grandchildren.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.
