
20 Couples Attend Geneva Cana Talks

Geneva—Third successive Pre-Cana Conference attracted 40 engaged and newly-married persons to St. Francis de Sales School hall, Sunday.

The program opened with the Rev. Walter Carron as moderator. Mrs. Lewis Fowler, of Penn Yan, was in charge of arrangements for the conference.

Father Carron opened the program with the subject "The Christian Attitude Toward Sex," after which Attorney Gerald Barrett and Mrs. Barrett of Webster discussed "Marriage—A Partnership."

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett have appeared on other Pre-Cana Conferences programs and as usual proved popular with their local audience.

Father Carron spoke on "The Nature and Dignity of Marriage," and Dr. George H. R. White of Geneva discussed "Psychology and Physiology of Marriage."

Before the close of the conference, a discussion was held on the marriage law.

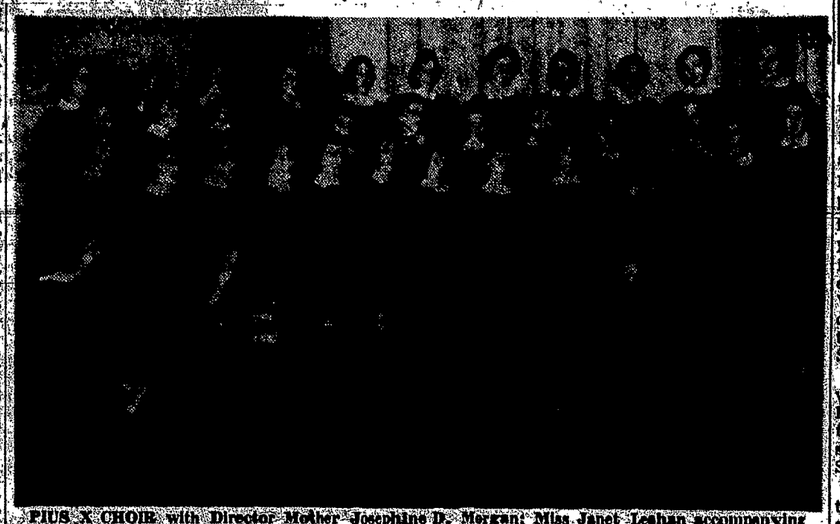
After the program supper was served by affiliated organizations of the National Council of Catholic Women, sponsoring agency for the conference.

Sacred Heart Alumnae To Give Pius X Choir Concerts

Alumnae of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Prince Street, announce two concerts to be given by the Pius X Choir of Manhattanville College on Saturday, March 19. Both concerts will be given at the convent.

The afternoon concert, scheduled for 2:30 p.m. has been specially prepared for the clergy and Sisters of the diocese.

At the evening concert, which begins at 8:15 p.m. the audience will be composed of alumnae, parents and friends of the Convent. The Concerts are part of the centenary celebration of the Rochester institution.



PIUS X CHOIR with Director Mother Josephine D. Morgan; Miss Janet Leahan accompanying on the piano. The Choir is a picked group from the student body of 470 at the New York College. They represent 12 states, Hawaii, and Japan. By special arrangement with Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart and the Convent Centenary Committee, two concerts are planned at 8 Prince Street, Rochester for Saturday, March 19.

MANHATTANVILLE College, Purchase, New York, is taught by the Religious of the Sacred Heart, who are also engaged in the teaching of the grade and high school subjects at Prince Street.

A former student of the Convent, Patricia Langie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Langie of 355 Yarmouth Road, this city, is one of those returning to Rochester to sing with the Choir. She is now in her sophomore year at the New York College. The Choir numbers some 35 members who represent 12 states, Hawaii, and Japan.

Manhattanville, now in its third year on the 250-acre campus in Westchester, saw the founding of the Pius X School of Liturgical Music on its city campus in 1918. The School was the response to the Motu Proprio of St. Pius, calling for a revival in Gregorian Chant.

PROGRAM NUMBERS offered on Saturday have been arranged in chronological order. They include some of the earliest examples of Western Christian music, as well as some of the compositions of modern masters. The program will include:

Veni Creator—Mode VIII, Polyphonic Motet—3 voices, Gregorian Chant, Ravanello; Da Pacem—Mode I, Introit—18th Sunday after Pentecost, Gregorian Chant; Fidelis Servus—Mode VII, Communion—Common of a Confessor Bishop, Gregorian Chant; Recordare Virgo Mater—Mode I, Offertory—Feast of the Seven Dolors, Gregorian Chant; Alleluia—Virga Jesse — Mode VIII, Common of the Blessed Virgin, Gregorian Chant; O Sacrum Convivium 4 voices, Victoria; Looke Downe O Lorde, 4 voices, Byrde; Judas Mercator, 4 voices, Victoria; Jesu Dulcis Memoria, 4 voices, Victoria; Pueri Hebraeorum, 4 voices, Palestrina.

Brother Heard In Vocation Month Talks

Brother Clement Patrick, F. S. C., Director of Vocations of the Brothers of the Christian Schools is speaking in schools of the Diocese of Rochester during Vocation Month according to the Reverend Charles V. Boyle, Diocesan Superintendent of Schools.

Br. Clement Patrick

Representing a community which formerly was active in the Diocese of Rochester, the Christian Brothers conduct high schools in Albany, Buffalo and Syracuse in this state.

The Brothers when in Rochester staffed old St. Patrick Cathedral Grammar School. One of their alumni was the late Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco.

THE JUNIOR Novitiate of the Christian Brothers at Barrytown-on-Hudson covers second, third and fourth years of high school. The Senior Novitiate is also at Barrytown.

Manhattan College in New York City and LaSalle College of Philadelphia are conducted by the Christian Brothers.

Founder of the order, St. John Baptist de la Salle is the Patron of All Teachers.

Brother Clement Patrick's address is Director of Vocations, Brothers of the Christian Schools, 105 Hanover St., Troy, N. Y.

Rummage Sale, Communion Listed

Ladies Auxiliary No. 44, Knights of St. John of SS. Peter and Paul Parish, Rochester, will hold its annual rummage sale Thursday, March 24 at 215 Main St. W. The store will be open Wednesday from 6 to 9 p.m. to receive donations. Further information is available from Miss Thomas at the request of the Family Guidance Group.

R. A. Martin, GEnesee 3610-R.

Communion Slated By Family Guidance Group

Family Guidance Group of Immaculate Conception Parish will receive Holy Communion in a group at the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 20.

Several years ago it was decided to receive Communion in a group on the Sunday nearest the feast of St. Joseph, patron of families, so particularly patron of this family-minded group.

Attendance has grown each year so that the center aisles of the church can no longer contain the entire group of communicants, a spokesman said.

This year children will also receive in the group. The Mass is being offered for Sister Marie

DCCW Workshop Features Father Shamon In Talk

One of the highlights of the Workshop planned by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will be a talk given on Tuesday evening by Rev. Albert J. Shamon. His topic, titled "What Manner of Thing is This?" will explain the purposes and principles of the N.C.C.W.

According to Rev. E. Leo McMannus, Diocesan Moderator and Mrs. Joseph E. Schnorr, Diocesan President and Chairman of the Workshop, an interesting refresher course on the "Who? What? Why? of the Council" will be presented.

THIS WORKSHOP is scheduled from Tuesday afternoon, March 22 until Wednesday afternoon, March 23 at the Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St.

In order to unite the women from all parts of the Diocese and to acquaint them with the purposes of the organization, each committee will be examined and discussed in detail. Also, the spiritual development of leaders, so necessary in these days of confusion and immorality, will be emphasized.

Officers of the diocesan and deanery councils, the committee chairmen and members of affiliated groups, and all interested women are invited. Mrs. George P. Vogt is in charge of reservations.
