Sisters of St. Joseph
100th
ANNIVERSARY
Diocese of Rochester

From the happy classrooms of a very new school in a very old parish
That has witnessed all the beginnings since that day when a small band of Sisters of St. Joseph came out of the west like Lochinvar, in search of adventure and the "white raven" of souls for God.

May God (forever) be with you, Sisters, while your splendid Sun continues to ride the skies.
