

To the Beloved Sisters of Saint Joseph:

Heariest Congratulations and all our prayers on this "Centenary Year" of your noble work in our diocese.

On this happy occasion, the entire congregation of St. Stanislaus Church consider it a pleasure to extend to the Sisters of St. Joseph an expression of respect, admiration and sincere gratitude for their faithful and glorious 80 years of service in our parish school.

May God grant your grace, strength and many consolations in your service to Him and His children.

Sisters of SAINT JOSEPH

non stop service to Humanity!

every second, every day!

As you live your life of tireless and selfless devotion to others in God's Name, whether teaching in the classrooms, nursing the sick, in meditation and prayer, even in relaxation and rest, every second counts in the invaluable service you render to us and to our children. This, your community has done for the Diocese of Rochester for a full one hundred years.
