GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

HOLY Week brings out what is worst in man and what is best in God, namely the evil of man who would slay Perfect Goodness, and the Goodness of God Who would not allow that slaying to be permanent, but rose from the dead to shed into man's hearts His Spirit of forgiveness. The Crucifixion is the autobiography of every living soul. The parchment on which it is written is the Flesh of the Son of God; the ink is His Precious Blood; the pen is the Lance cutting deep into His Heart, or the Nails writing indelibly as Scars.

In the brightness of sun, or in the midst of follies, this record of our past may fade into shadowy outline as we turn our eyes from the blotches and the daubs of life. But in times of silence—on the sick bed at midnight when darkness gives vision scope, or the open desolation of the lonely sea—our faults blaze as characters of unrelenting fire.

The crown of thorns would have been less piercing if we had been less proud in our thoughts; the nails would have summoned forth lesser fountains if we had not been so greedy or so avaricious; the Feet would have been less riven with steel had we wandered in the paths of sin. This is the personal equation between the Cross and ourselves.

What can we do about it? Sacrifice must be paid with sacrifice. His love by our love. But how show our love? By bringing the Cross to the Moslems, the Bantus, the Hindus, the Japanese, for whom Christ died. No, you cannot go, but your sacrifice can go. Undo your past by giving someone else a future; untangle greed by giving up a luxury; unscramble by giving up a legitimate need. Translate your sorrow this week into a prayer for the Missions, or a fast, or a denial of something concrete. Mail a little "cross," a sacrifice, and in your letter say: "I want to rewrite my autobiography on the Cross, in terms of love. This offering will be the first stroke in my new life of love for Jesus and Mary."

GOD LOVE YOU to C. D. Z. "In your MISSION magazine you have a chart which indicates that $10 will buy linen for a tuberculosis ward. I recently underwent a serious operation and needed a special nurse—I am letting her go a day early to send the enclosed $12 to buy that linen. God has loved me for He has made me well. . . . to T. J. F. for $50. In gratitude for a long life (87)." . . . to R. L. G. "I am a boy eight years old. Yesterday one of my baby teeth fell out. I tied it in a handkerchief and put it under my pillow. The tooth was gone this morning and this $2 was there. I want you to have the $2 because I have everything I want." . . . to B. E. R. for $20. "May I ask that this be used for my intention—that we find our cattle that have disappeared. (The West is still the West)."

During Holy Week we are reminded of the people all over the world for whom Our Lord died. To say a WORLDMISSION ROSARY is to pray for these people. Each decade of this rosary is colored to represent one of the missionary continents. Its beads form a chain of love that extends around Africa, Asia, Oceania, Europe and the Americas. Now during these last days of Lent, send us your request for a WORLDMISSION ROSARY, along with an offering of $3 to aid the poor of the world.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and send it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1x, N. Y., or your Diocesan Director, Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.
