KC Fourth Degree Slated Sunday

Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus from all sections of the Rochester Diocese will converge on Rochester, Sunday, April 17 for exemplification of the patriotic degree and a banquet to follow.

The banquet at which His Excellency Bishop Kearney will be principal speaker will take place in Seneca Hotel ballroom at 7 p.m.

Paul J. Mallanocourt, master of the Fifth District will preside at the formal initiation in Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall, Monroe Ave. at Oxford St. at 2 p.m.

Faithful Navigator Eugene H. Calkins of Rochester Assembly will welcome the air knights. John Frendergast is local chairman.

Alhambra Ladies To Hold Elections

Alhambra Ladies will hold elections at the Sheraton Hotel on Tuesday, April 18. Mrs. Thomas H. O'Connor will preside.

The nominating committee consists of Mrs. Clarence M. Lofink, Mrs. Joseph F. O'Connor, Mrs. Nicholas J. O'Neill and Mrs. St. Owen-Plans will be made for the annual luncheon in May. Cards and refreshments will follow.

St. Catherine of Siena Chapter, Third Order of St. Dominic, will meet at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 17, at the Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St.

The Very Rev. Albert Drexelius, O.P., who has been the Director of the local chapter for the past three years asked not to be re-appointed due to pressure of work and extra assignments from the Holy See as well as because of his health.

It is expected that the Provincial will appoint as the new director, Rev. Henry Atwell, Fr. Atwell will conduct the April meeting which will consist of an explanation of the rule, absolution from faults, sermon, rosary and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

April is the month when several Dominican saints are honored. Among these are St. Vincent Ferrer, St. Agnes of Montepulciano, St. Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort, St. Peter of Verona, and St. Catherine of Siena, patroness of the Rochester Chapter. Both St. Louis and St. Catherine were members of the Third Order.

St. Catherine's life was one of great interior recollection and external activity. Through suffering intense physical pain and subsisting on practically no food save the Blessed Sacrament, she worked incessantly for the salvation of souls in a hundred practical ways.

Speaker will be the Rev. William Jamison, S.S.F., of Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St. The rally is open to all members of St. Joseph's and friends of St. Joseph.

"It is the desire of the Holy Father that every man should make a closed retreat, and this meeting will outline the program of a closed retreat, as conducted by the Redemptorist Fathers at the Notre Dame Retreat House, Alexander St., Rochester."

An interesting evening is promised by the committee including entertainment and refreshments.

Refreshments will be served with Mrs. Alfred Bolger's band acting as hostesses.

Under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Gavett, Executive Secretary, The Rochester Area Multiple Sclerosis Association this week moved into new quarters from which the operations of the local MS Chapter will be directed.

The new office is located 133 East Ave. The downtown location was selected with an eye toward the convenience of area MS patients.

The volunteers have expressed their sincere hope that all residents of the town will support the fund-drive as best they can.

Card Party To Benefit Dominican Monastery

A benefit card party will be held by the Dominican Guild on Wednesday, April 20 at 8 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament school auditorium, Monroe Ave. and Oxford St., Rochester.

Proceeds will be turned over to the Dominican Nuns at the Dominican Monastery for the Perpetual Rosary in Elmira, for the new chapel fund.

Since coming to the diocese, the nuns have doubled their number, and now find themselves severely handicapped for adequate chapel facilities in which to carry out their daily rituals.

All Third Order Dominican sisters and their friends are welcome and urged to attend.
