

"Gallery" Developer Honored

Frank J. Lange, "Gallery" supervisor, presents John T. Nothnagle with testimonial plaque commemorating the "Gallery of Homes" realtor's 6th Anniversary in the real-estate business. The testimonial was signed by 80 employees of the Nothnagle organization. Seated at the speakers table at the banquet at Lorenzo's are, from left to right, Marie H. Mooney, vice president, Mrs. Nothnagle, and Otto C. Leyer, manager of the mortgage department. Carl A. Pritchard, branch manager of the Dewey-Stone "Gallery" looks on.

CATHOLIC FAMILY

After a few moments of earnest conversation, she replaced the phone on its hook and marched triumphantly into the office. "Mrs. Akrey said that she and her husband would be delighted to help the 'Courier-Journal' she informed us, and added, 'if the newspaper would not mind a bit of dress camouflage under the circumstances.' As a matter of fact, on that very day Mrs. Akrey had renewed her subscription to the Courier-Journal and the call impressed her as a good omen.

June Akrey proved to be all that her photographs claimed her to "be and more. She is gracious, sincere and quite a 'homebody' to use a somewhat corny expression, but no other term more adequately describes her home-loving personality. As a photographic professional background, she holds no illusions of grandeur. It is just a job to supplement her husband's income to bring her "dream home" closer to reality. The next Eastman Kodak national advertisements in which she will appear are scheduled for the Saturday Evening Post, (Continued on Page 4-A)

Lakeview

One of Western New York's loveliest and fastest-growing communities Lakeview presents an eye-catching array of homes . . . built for growing young families. In and paid for are macadam roads, wide sidewalks, storm and sanitary sewers. Lakeview dwellers enjoy a "minute-away" proximity to the new Mother of Sorrows school, beautiful Northgate Plaza and Lake Ontario.
