Girls Receive Awards From Marquette

Two Nazareth College seniors have received awards from Marquette University according to information received this week. They are Miss Sheila Conneady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Conneady, 140 Curtis St., and Miss Joyce Flavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Flavin, 100 Clay Ave.

Sheila A. Conneady

Miss Conneady was awarded a graduate assistantship in Mathematics. Miss Conneady, a

Mathematics major, will begin her graduate work in September. She is vice-president of the Undergraduate Association and has held various class offices. She is a graduate of Nazareth Academy, where she was the president of the Sodality, and is a member of Holy Apostles parish.

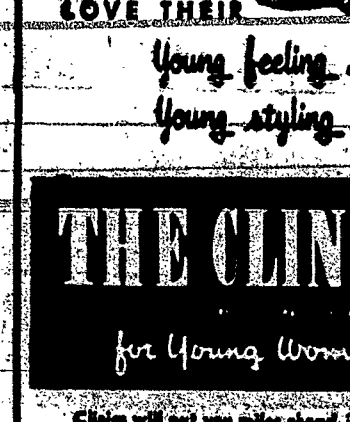

Miss Flavin has received a scholarship for graduate study in English from Marquette. She was the associate editor of Gleaner and is the literary editor of Sighs, the college yearbook. She is also a graduate of Nazareth Academy, where she was the editor of the yearbook and is a member of Sacred Heart parish.

Previously reported awards for graduate work to members of this class were an Assistantship in Chemistry to Joan Ewing, who received honorable mention in the National Science Foundation competition, and Fulbright scholarship to Helen Bauer for a year's graduate study in France.

Father Whelan Addresses Group
Painted Post—The Very Rev. Gerald J. Whelan, C.S.S.R., a Redemptorist from Rochester, at the regular meeting of the Holy Name Society of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church last Monday in the parish hall, spoke to the men of the parish about the Laymen's Retreat in Rochester late this month.

The religious gathering will be held April 29-30 and May 1 at the Notre Dame Retreat House, John DeGus, the president of the Laymen's Retreat League in the Rochester Diocese, also spoke briefly.

Politics Misunderstood, Speaker Tells Group

About 100 members of the Sodality and Altar Society of St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira, attended the Society's 20th annual dinner April 18, at D'Arcy Restaurant.

Principal speaker was Jim Morse, local newspaper columnist, who chose "Bibles and Ballots" as his subject.

"Politics," Morse said, "is one of the most misused and misunderstood words in our vocabulary. A law dictionary says, 'Politics is a science of government, the art of organizing or administering public affairs.'"

"IN AMERICA," he continued, "we have the greatest democracy in the world, and it has been said that the soul of Democracy is the Christian religion. It has been said, our most potent weapons, as Americans, are the Bibles of Christian Democracy, Bibles, backbone, brains and ballots. Probably the reason America has done so well is that we have used our Bibles and ballots."

"We talk a lot about Communism," he said, "but we should be worried about the number of Christians in government, worried that there are not enough of them. If Christians are to be effective, they must surely accept the responsibility of Christian citizenship, and the Christian who abstains from taking part in the running of his country is simply an ineffective politician. He is a tool of those who would use politics for evil ends, the bosses, the peddlers of influence, the criminal element who live upon corruption in politics."

"Indifference to wrong-doing is still another attitude that keeps us from being Christian citizens," he said. "We are so rapt up in our own affairs and desires and ambitions, that we do not make the problems of the city and the state and the nation our concern. It is our job to make our Government good and no one can do it for us, but when we do let others do it for us, we no longer have Christian Democracy."

"One of our late Presidents said, 'We must not be confused about the issue which confronts the world today.' That issue is as old as recorded history. It is tyranny versus freedom. Tyranny has, throughout history, assumed many disguises, and has relied on many false philosophies to justify its attack on human freedom."

"Communism masquerades as the doctrine of progress. It is nothing of the kind. It is, on the contrary, a movement of reaction. It denies that man is master of his fate, and consequently,

The architect said equipment for the administrative offices will probably be purchased from local suppliers.

Meanwhile, general construction of the new school is "practically completed," Considine reported.

Work is being finished on the gymnasium floor and electrical installations are in the final stages. Interior painting, plumbing and laying of sidewalks and driveways.

Contractors also are making rapid progress on remodeling the former Thomas McCann home, adjacent to the school, which will be the convent for Sisters of Mercy.

An addition is being built on the rear of the home and the interior is being modernized.

Building Started On New School In Geneva Parish

Geneva—With the $75,000 building fund goal topped by $4,032, work has begun on the new garage at St. Francis de Sales parish, Geneva. This is part of the new school addition which also includes four new classrooms.

The Rev. Edward K. Ball, pastor, has set September as the expected date of completion of the building operations. Increased enrollment has necessitated the new building, he stated.

PRESENT enrollment of 632 pupils is expected to exceed 700 next year, Father Ball said. He expressed regret at the necessity of tearing down the old barn on the school property to make way for the school addition. It was built in 1884, the same time as the church.

White and Helm of Geneva are the architects and Nicholas Collo and Sons are builders.
