Carmel Tertiaries Home From Chicago National Sessions

Fourteen tertiaries from Rochester attended the Eighth National Conference of the Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in Chicago on May 7 and 8.

His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, who is Episcopal Protector of the Third Order in the United States and Canada, opened the Conference by presiding at a Solemn Mass in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel at the National Shrine of the Little Flower.

The Very Rev. Patrick Russell, O. Carm., Prior Provincial of the St. Elias Province of the Third Order, was the speaker at the Mass. Music was furnished by the St. Clara's Choral Group under the direction of the School Sisters of St. Francis.

The sessions were devoted to questions and problems concerning the Rule of tertiary life. Exhibits on the spiritual and apostolic work of the Third Order were arranged by Carmelite Sisters from the Motherhouse in Trinidad, B.W.I.

The Mass on Sunday was celebrated in Holy Name Cathedral by the Very Rev. Raphael P. Kieffer, O. Carm., Prior Provincial of the Province of the Most Pure Heart of Mary. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick J. Hayes, Rector of the Cathedral, welcomed the tertiaries to Chicago. Music for the Solemn Mass was furnished by the Cardinal's Cathedral Choristers and the Quigley Seminary Plain Chant Choir.

The Conference closed Sunday evening with a banquet attended by His Eminence Cardinal Stritch. His Eminence spoke to the tertiaries and then imparted the Papal Blessing to those attending the Conference.

Observance Set By Geneva USO

Geneva USO Club will honor the members of our Armed Forces on Saturday, May 21, Armed Forces Day, with an Open House and evening dance.

W. Gordon Edgly, director, stated that plans are being made to entertain over 1200 servicemen and women during the day. "Open House" will begin at 9 a.m. and refreshments will be served throughout the day.

The USO is supported primarily through Red Feather Campaigns.

The USO Club in Geneva is operated by the National Catholic Community Service, a member agency of USO.

Card Party Planned At Club House

St. Andrew's Auxiliary 232 and St. Louis Commandery 17 are sponsoring a card party at the Knights and Ladies of St. John Club, 365 Andrews St., on Wednesday, May 25. Members and friends are invited.

Bishop Kearney Confirms Class Of 104 In Geneva

Geneva — His Excellency Bishop Kearney of Rochester confirmed a class of 80 children and 24 adults on Sunday at 5 p.m., in St. Stephen Church.

Bishop Kearney impressed those confirmed with the importance of the confirmation ceremonies and the coming of the Holy Ghost upon them. He expressed the hope that they would be made strong and perfect Christians, and soldiers of Jesus Christ.

The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor, was deacon for the confirmation services; the Rev. Joseph F. Hogan, subdeacon; and the Rev. John L. Coonan, secretary to the bishop, was master of ceremonies.

In the sanctuary were the Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., dean of Geneva Deanery, and pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church; the Rev. Aphonsus Crimmins, pastor of St. Mary Church, Canandaigua; the Rev. William Gaynor, of Canandaigua, and the Rev. Valentine Jankowiak of St. Francis de Sales Church; Dr. Joseph L. Hogan, principal of De Sales High School, Father Michael, rector at the Capuchin Seminary, Lochland Rd., and Father Richard, also of the Capuchin Seminary.

Bishop Kearney will return to Geneva again in fall for the confirmation of another large group of candidates.

Officer Installation Set At Tureen Supper

Rosary Society of St. Andrew Parish will install new officers at a tureen supper on Tuesday, May 24 at 6 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Ladies are asked to bring their favorite hot dish, salad or dessert as admission.

New officers are the Mesdames Eleanor Schneider, president; Agnes Riley, vice president; Sylvia Vogt, treasurer; and Miss Emily Pierer, secretary. Mrs. Grace Ehrstein and Mrs. Vogt are hostesses.

Scout Award To Cardinal

His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman will be specially honored by the National Catholic Committee on Boy Scouting at luncheon on May 26th in the Biltmore where he will receive a specially cast gold emblazoned Ad Altare Dei Cross and a testimonial paying tribute to his long and ardent support of the Scouting Movement in the United States.

Nazareth Academy Carver Club Flies To Niagara Falls

Members of the Carver Club of Nazareth Academy climaxed their year's activities by taking an airplane trip to Niagara Falls on Ascension Thursday.

The airplane trip is an annual event open to all members of the club who wish to have the experience of air travel. It is arranged by M. J. Montroy of American Airlines Incorporated. It includes a sight seeing tour of the American and Canadian Falls by motor coach which meets the group at the airport.

Students left Rochester at 9:46 a.m. and arrived at the Falls at 10:22 a.m. They had luncheon on the Canadian side and returned to Rochester at 5:27 p.m.

The Carver Club is a science organization open to all students interested in the natural sciences. Its work is distributed among several committees, such as the nature, garden, and museum groups. It is named in honor of the great Negro scientist, George Washington Carver.

Gymorama, Circus Planned At CYO

The CYO will stage its first annual gymorama and circus on Friday, June 3 at 8 p.m. in the Columbus Civic Centre Auditorium. The show will feature preformers from the tiny tot of five to the expert gymnast.

More than 200 children and adults will participate in the program which will consist of drills, dance work, tumbling, acrobatics, trampoline tumbling, hand balancing and many other novelty numbers. Tickets may be obtained from the Physical Education Department of the C.Y.O.

Auburn Prison Employees Plan Communion Breakfast

Auburn—Annual Communion breakfast of the Catholic employees of Auburn Prison will take place Sunday, May 22. Following Mass at 7:30 a.m. at St. Aloysius Church, the group will assemble at The Grand where the parish women will serve breakfast.

The Rev. Gregory Dugan, prison chaplain, is being assisted in the arrangements by the following committee: Harry M. Dillon, chairman, John Mullaney, James Doyle, Francis Alexander, Joseph Kahl, and Leslie Alexander.

The traditional reciprocal arrangement whereby Catholic and non-Catholic employees assume each other's duties so that all of one faith may attend their annual Communion breakfast has helped swell the reservation list which indicates an unusually large turnout.

Coverts Observe Golden Jubilee In Seneca Falls

Seneca Falls — Mr. and Mrs. Herman Covert of E. Bayard Street, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on May 3. They were honored at that time by a dinner party given by their son, George Covert, at the Armitage.

Mrs. Covert was Miss Ellen Galvin, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Galvin. She was married on May 3, 1905 to Mr. Herman Covert, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hosmer of Fayette, by the late Rev. Michael U. Dwyer, then pastor of St. Patrick's Parish. The attendants were Edward Barrett of Rochester and Mrs. Samuel McGraw who now resides in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Covert have one son, George Covert who with his wife and two children, Brian and Barbara, are residents of Rochester.

In addition to the guests of honor at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. George Covert, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reagan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, all of Seneca Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Grey Salisbury and James King of Rochester and Mrs. Lillian Osborn of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Covert were recipients of the well wishes and congratulations of their many friends, as well as many gifts and cards in commemoration of the occasion.

Sodalists Welcomed By Bosco Club

At their May Communion breakfast, held Sunday, May 15, the St. John Bosco Club of Holy Rosary Parish welcomed the Senior Sodalists of the Holy Rosary Sodality. The breakfast was held in Holy Rosary School hall after the 10 a.m. Mass, followed by a business meeting.

Plans for May have been announced by Loretta Bernardo, president of the club. The Club recited the Rosary at St. Francis of Assisi Church on May 19. John Fagan was leader.

The club's social activity for May will be a roller skating party, to be held Sunday, May 22 at the Henrietta Hayloft. Cars will leave Holy Rosary parking lot at 6:15 and reservations are now being taken by the committee.

Concluding their activities for this month, the club was invited to an open house sponsored by the Xavier Club of Holy Cross Church on Wednesday, May 18.
