Raymond Spain New Priests Offer Mass For Deceased Classmate

Auburn—A member of the 1935 graduation class of St. Bernard Seminary, Rochester, who died in October of 1954, was remembered by his classmates, now in the priesthood, at a solemn Mass in St. Bernard Seminary, Rochester, Wednesday, June 15.

The Mass was offered for the repose of the soul of Mr. Raymond Spain, son of Mrs. Josephine Spain of Sheridan St., Auburn, by his priest-classmates. At the time of his death he was a returned cleric in second theology at St. Bernard.

THE VOTIVE MASS of the Little Flower was celebrated by the Rev. Richard A. Hart, with the Rev. Leonard A. Carter, deacon and the Rev. Daniel P. Tierney, subdeacon.

Also in the Sanctuary other members of the class were the Reverend Fathers John Russell, James Culver and William Stewart.

The Mass was attended by many members of Mr. Spain's family and friends from Auburn.

Nurses Playground Donated By Firm

Bornell—A playground area for the student nurses of St. James Mercy Hospital has been made available through the generosity of the Hickey-Fleming Clothing Co. according to an announcement made here.

Harold Hickey, vice president and Paul Hickey, personal manager, announced that a spacious area adjacent to the factory was made available for this purpose and will be exclusively for the use of the student nurses. This will meet the standards of a recreational requirement that has been proposed by the National Nurses Accrediting Service.

French Newspaper Relates Story Of Geneva Librarian

Geneva—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Van Kirk of Geneva have received a copy of a French newspaper which describes the duties of their daughter, Mrs. Donald Ryan as field librarian for Trois Fontaines and Vastinour. The article said in part:

"Mrs. Donald Ryan can be fairly described as a complete librarian. She is married to a librarian while both were graduates students at Columbia University School of Library Science.

"They were married last December by the Rev. Kevin Flood, S.J., who received his master of science in library science in June of 1954 in the same class as Cpl. Ryan. Mrs. Ryan received her master's degree in February of this year.

"After graduating from Nazareth College, Mrs. Ryan served as librarian in the Government Documents of Cornell University. And in a Brooklyn Public Library, Cpl. Ryan, a graduate of Harvard University, served as librarian there and in a New York Public Library prior to entering service."
