Texas Bishop Raps Films, Urges Box-Office Boycott

Dallas, Tex.—(AP)—The Bishop of Dallas-Fort Worth strikes out at low-grade movies in his diocesan paper, the Texas Catholic, this weekend and urges readers to give "the absent treatment" to films of low moral tone.

Bishop Thomas K. Gorman says in his column, "The Shepherd Tells His Tale," that it is becoming more evident each day "that a crisis has arisen in the matter of public showing of movies rated unfit by basic moral standards."
