Realtors Attend Lake George State Conclave June 22-25

President Thomas S. Mills Jr. of the Real Estate Board of Rochester has led a contingent of thirty-seven Rochesterians attending the 51st annual convention of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards being held at Bolton Landing, Lake George (N. Y.). It was learned early this week that the convention, presided over by Ralph E. Borcherdt, Rochester realtor and president of the state association, officially began Wednesday, June 22nd and will end tomorrow evening, June 25th, according to a real estate board spokesman.

Members who had planned to make the trip included Harold F. Gruner, Stewart A. Maurer, Robert S. Elwell, Andrew Chenery, Joseph E. Ives, Frank A. Drum, Ina H. Clancy, Mrs. Mildred DuVall, Mrs. Helen Wittman, Anthony Audiro, Nick Meleo, Lawrence Pringle, Mrs. Nora F. Shackleford, Irving Starr, Nick Glanack.

Other members who planned attendance with their wives, were Ralph R. Borcherdt, Thomas S. Mills Jr., John D. Tighe, William A. Norman, William R. Challice, Larry Stowell, Charles J. Norman, William Allen, Fred B. Kravetz, Frank J. Esse and F. Lett L. Greeno.

The Rochester Board of Education. She has several elementary schools under her special care and finds that the restaurant business during the evenings and on weekends is a delightful outlet for her college training in psychology.

"I have always enjoyed meeting people," Mrs. Szanto says with enthusiasm, "while my husband's chief joy is the kitchen. I think that we make a very happy combination for this business."

Mr. and Mrs. Szanto own their own home on Barcrest Drive in the Town of Greece. Assisting in the restaurant direction as general host as time from Kodak duties will allow, is Mrs. Szanto's father, Frank Durand, a long-time employee of Kodak (F-3-G).
