Military Field Mass Slated By Knights Of St. John

Annual Memorial Military Field Mass of the Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John is scheduled for 10 a.m. Sunday, June 26 at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Forming in the Dewey Ave. Gate, the uniformed members of the Commandaries and Ladies Auxiliary Drill Teams, under the command of Col. Emil G. Eckert, will move promptly at 9:30 a.m. The Rev. Frank Valukевич, assistant pastor of Mt. Carmel Church and celebrant of the Mass will be escorted to the temporary altar which has been erected by members of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Commandery 308, before the All Souls Chapel, on the east side of Lake Ave.

During the Mass, appropriate hymns will be sung by a choir comprised of the Ladies Drill Team of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Auxiliary, accompanied by the entire assemblage under the leadership of Inspector Gen. Al G. Miller.

Following the Mass, a short sermon will be delivered by Father Valukевич, and the names of all members, deceased since last year's Mass, will be read by Regimental Adjutant John G. Schmelder.

Arrangements are being made by the military committee of the regiment with Paymaster Raymond J. Crombach as honorary chairman.

Rochester Maryknoll Nun Returns To China

Sister Mary Magdalena of the Maryknoll Sisters, formerly Catherine Uricher of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, Rochester, has been reassigned to China, according to a release from Maryknoll.

The former Rochesterian had worked as a missioner in the Orient since 1935 returning to this country in 1954.

Her brothers, John and George Uricher live on Chitmaso Road, Rochester.

The 1955 assignment lists named 42 Maryknoll Sisters to work in this country. In all, 28 overseas posts and 14 to mission American dioceses are represented by the assignments.

More than 500 Maryknoll Sisters are laboring in foreign missions overseas. Others are engaged in mission work in this country, conducting centers for Orientals in large cities, schools for minority races, and catechetical works among scattered migrant workers of California and the Southwest.

2 Profess Vows At Mt. Saviour

Two novices at Mount Saviour Monastery near Elmira, made their profession in a ceremony which took place at the 9:00 A.M. High Mass today, the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

In the absence of Very Rev. Damascius Winzen, Prior of the Benedictine Community, the Rev. Gregory Borgstedt, Superior, conducted the ceremonies, and assisted by Rev. Peter Minard, imposed on the candidates the vows of stability in the Monastery, conversion of manners and obedience.

Taking the vows were Brother Francis McGuire of Staten Island, New York, and Brother Boniface Henry of Woodbridge, Penna. After the ceremony of the Mass, they were interrogated on their willingness to give up their worldly career for monastic life. The vows were recited and the novices signed them upon the altar.

Scholarship Slated By K.C.

Elmira Council No. 222, Knights of Columbus will sponsor a freshman scholarship for the year of 1955-56, for the Catholic High School, to be presented to any Catholic child entering Notre Dame de Lourdes High School this fall.

Any Catholic child entering the school is eligible for that scholarship and may send their name into Columbus Centre, where the award will be made on the night of July 6. The children may be present, at that ceremony.

Legion Of Mary Curia To Hold Annual Picnic

Rochester Curia of the Legion of Mary will hold a combination monthly meeting and annual picnic at the Medical Mission Guild Cottage on Valley View Road, tonight June 24, at 8 p.m.

Annual reports will be received from Our Lady of Mercy Praesidium, St. Ann Church, Honeoye and from Queen of All Saints Praesidium, St. Peter and Paul Church, Rochester.

At the May meeting of the Curia the first report from the Motherhood of Our Lady Praesidium at St. Peter and Paul Church, Elmira was submitted by its president, Carl W. Webb. It is under the spiritual direction of the Rev. Bartholomew J. O'Brien.

NINE ACTIVE members and 70 auxiliary members are in the group at the present time, one active member having left to join a religious order. Father O'Brien has given his members diligent assignments from the beginning and as a result converts have been made and returns to the Sacraments witnessed.

The members have also visited the sick, encouraged attendance at retreats for young and old by personal visitation, welcomed new parishioners, delivered prayers in the home, and assisted Father Elmhann in organizing inquiry classes for non-Catholics. During the past year the secretary of the praesidium, Miss Barbara Oll, entered the Franciscan Convent at Graymour.

Another annual report was presented by Miss Regina Donais, president of Maria Assumpta Praesidium at St. Mary of the Lake Church in Watkins Glen. Started in March 1952 by the Rev. Benedict Elmhann the group's last undertaking was a complete census of all baptized Catholics in Watkins Glen and Montour Falls.

The praesidium currently visits the sick, welcomes newcomers to the parish, and assists Father Elmhann in organizing inquiry classes for non-Catholics. During the past year the secretary of the praesidium, Miss Barbara Oll, entered the Franciscan Convent at Graymour.

Davy Crockett's World Listed At City Libraries
