Sacred Heart Statue Overlooks Hollywood

Los Angeles — (NC) — A heroic size statue of the Sacred Heart now overlooks the heart of Hollywood. It is atop a hillside less than a mile from Hollywood and Vine, crossroads of filmland.

The statue is 20 feet high, made of Carrara marble and is located on the grounds of the Monastery of the Angels, a monastery of cloistered Dominican nuns who have perpetual adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Auxiliary Bishop Timothy Manning of Los Angeles blessed the statue on the feast of the Sacred Heart.

The statue is on a hillside north of Hollywood boulevard. Adjoining the monastery is a retreat house for women conducted by the nuns.

Cardinal Visits Fiji Islands

Ba, Fiji Islands — (NC) — His Eminence Norman Cardinal Gilroy, Archbishop of Sydney, delighted Fijians when he sat on the ground with 300 other guests to banquet in the Fijian style at the headquarters of the Columban Fathers in Lautoka.

After a ceremonial drink of kava, a bitter native beverage, the Cardinal was presented with a whale's tooth in an age-old ceremony for the reception of a great chief.

Voice To Broadcast Mass To Siberia

Washington, D.C.—(RNS)—A Roman Catholic Mass will be broadcast each Sunday by the Voice of America to Ukrainians exiled in Siberia, the United States Information Agency disclosed here.

The agency said so many Ukrainians have been forced into labor camps and collective farms in Siberia that a daily half hour program will be beamed to them on two channels from American transmitters in the Far East.

The programs will be selected from the general Ukrainian language service which is broadcast to the Ukraine from transmitters in Europe. The new Far Eastern programs represent the first specific recognition by the United States that large groups of Ukrainians have been sent to eastern Siberia in mass deportations.

American officials are confident that a sufficient number of Ukrainian farmers in Siberia will be able to hear the broadcasts on their radios to make the special programming worth while.

For a number of years the Voice has been recording services in U.S. Ukrainian churches for broadcast to the homeland where religious persecution has been intense. Ukrainians in Siberia are almost completely without priests and churches.

Hands

By PATRICIA LOGAN

His Hands,
Tiny, stretched forth happily on
a bleak wintry night,
Childish, throwing a ball, caressing His father's tools,
Youthful, smoothing a freshly
hewn plank,
Manly, lifted in blessing, in soothing, in healing,
Sacred, breaking bread, offering a sacrifice,
Mangled, bleeding, held out in
death forgivingly,
Triumphant, holding the sceptre
of the King of the Universe.

Japanese Aid Church Study

Tokyo — A subsidy of 1,000,000 yen (about $2,275) has been granted to the Philosophy Department of Sophia University by the government to purchase microfilm copies of important books in the field of medieval philosophy.

These films, it is hoped, will serve as the nucleus of a research center, duplicating, to some extent, the work being done by the Institute of Medieval Philosophy in Toronto, Canada.

Boxing Champ Gives TV Prize To Diocese

Syracuse — (NC) — The Development Program of the Syracuse diocese was $130.50 richer when that sum was contributed to it by a prize winner on a TV program.

The Prize winner, Carmen Basilio, welterweight boxing champion of the world, won the sum for appearing as a guest on the TV program "Masquerade Parade."

On the program the guests are disguised and a panel of experts try to identify them. The guests win a dollar for every second they appear, the money going to a charity or organization of his choice.

CABLE SYMPATHY

Manila — (NC) — The Philippine hierarchy has cabled His Holiness Pope Pius XII expressing sympathy for Argentina's Catholics and grief over the attacks on the Church.
