Cinderella" contest, a dance and other entertainment has been arranged, it was announced by John J. Coughlin, convention committee chairman.

SECRETARY OF Labor James P. Mitchell and New York's Governor Averell Harriman will be the speakers at the convention banquet Aug. 20, at which His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, will be the guest of honor. It is expected that some 2,400 persons will attend the banquet.

Present at the convention sessions will be Msgr. Edward J. Higgins, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Long Island City, who founded the Catholic War Veterans. Monsignor Higgins will be guest of honor at a Communion breakfast on August 20.

The breakfast will follow a parade from St. Patrick's Cathedral, where Cardinal Spellman will offer Mass and convention delegates will receive Holy Communion. Bishop Cuthbert M. O'Gara, C.P., of Yuanling, who was expelled from China after being held prisoner by the communists, will be the guest speaker at the breakfast.

THOMAS J. Cuite of Brooklyn, national commander of the CWV, will preside over the convention sessions. Father John J. Wallace of the Church of the Epiphany here is the national CWV chaplain.

Business sessions of the convention will include the election of officers, adoption of resolutions, and modifications of the CWV constitutions and by-laws.

Fairport Church Plans First Picnic At Ellison

The first picnic ever held for the Church of the Assumption, Fairport, will take place at Orchard Grove, Ellison Park, Saturday, Aug. 13, starting at 4 p.m. Dinner will be served at 5 p.m.

Entertainment for young and old will follow the dinner.

Twenty-five Altar boys, who have served Mass faithfully for the past year, have returned from a weeks vacation at Camp Columbus on Owasco Lake. This was made possible through the generosity of the members of the parish. The boys all appreciated this event and it was the first time some of these boys ever attended camp.

Two hundred and forty-five boys and girls completed religious instruction held in the East Ave. School. This was the first time the children had the opportunity to enjoy the summer religious classes.

James Clark Funeral Rites Held In Reno

Funeral services for James D. Clark, former Rochesterian, were held in Reno, Nev., on Thursday, July 21. Mr. Clark died July 18, 1955.

Requiem high Mass was offered in the Church of Our Lady of the Snows by the Rev. Charles Shallow.

Mr. Clark was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 15, 1908. He received his education in Rochester where he attended Nazareth Hall and Aquinas Institute. He also attended Niagara University.

Since he moved to Reno in 1948, Mr. Clark was a member of the Serra Club and the Knights of Columbus and was also active in parish affairs.

He is survived by his wife, the former Doris Litolff; a son, Anthony Drennan, both of Reno; two sisters, Mrs. Walter T. Brannigan and Mrs. Roland Martin, both of Rochester, and several nieces and nephews.

Seated in the sanctuary were Monsignor P. J. Connors, Monsignor James P. Empey, the Rev. Robert Anderson, the Rev. Maurice Walsh and the Rev. Charles Rhigini.

The body will be returned to Rochester for interment.

Bank Announces New Policies For Children

The Rochester Savings Bank and Community Savings Bank announced that new policies with increased benefits for children have been made available.

Now children may be insured for as much as $2,000 of life insurance at ages 0-4 with full benefits starting at age one. As much as $5,000 of insurance with full immediate benefits may be issued at age 5 and over, depending upon the amount of insurance in force on the parent or applicant.

Policies issued at ages less than six months in amounts up to $2,000 provide one fourth the benefit for the first policy year then the full benefit thereafter. Usually no medical examination is required up to age 15.

A boy or girl of age one month or more is eligible for a policy. All usual policies are issued such as straight life, 20 payment life, 20 year endowment, life paid up at 65, and endowment at 65.

The Rochester Savings Bank and Community Savings Bank are two of 70 Savings Banks of New York State who make this service available to the public. These banks issue life insurance on a direct-to-buyer basis offering policies for men, women, and children in all usual policies and group life insurance.

Mother Of 7 In Leicester Wins Contest

Leicester—Mrs. Daniel Koch of Leicester learned last week that she was the winner of $1,000, a new clothes dryer and two cases of Oxydol in a contest sponsored by Proctor and Gamble.

Mrs. Koch, mother of seven children including two sets of twins, is a member of St. Thomas Aquinas Church where she is president of the Rosary Society. She is also raising three additional boys.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Koch live four miles out in the country, the entire family is always at Mass on time.

Mrs. Koch is active in community affairs. During the summer she transported the children to vacation school daily.
