any crossess are mesociated with working for the principles, and we often wonder why four Missionaries in China estimating imprisonances and sorture; in Endia they suffer from misunder, standing, while those wish week at home to supply the Holy Pather with means for these missionaries have a larger measure of trial. This is probably because the conversion of the parameter brings by to their souls; but no loys ever come is Carindantly without some sorten. Every loy is purchased through pain and trial; every Easter Sunday is precoded by a Good Frienday.

Our Lord sitressed this in the last parable or illustration He tised on earth, when, the right of the Last Supper, He referred to a woman im labor. "A woman in Childbirth feels distress be cause now her hour has come; but when she has borne her child. and does not remember her distress any longer, so glad is she that

. The discoler were and because Our Lord was to leave them: He told them He would come back in His spirit and their joy no one would take from them. But there had to be the separation in eath at a condition for a leville the Spirit, in all things, such as giving birth to a convert, there has to be labor, travall, distress and agony. It is not easy to bring a soul into the world; sometimes it is harder than to bring a body into the world. There is he inevitailly of sorrows in having anything to do with the conversion of

Now you know why we sake you to make sacrifices not to give consciling to get sid of an heggers, but to take on the "dying state and Jesus" as St. Paul said, through a giving up of something your love, in order that you may feel in your own heart like labor, the wrench, the pain, the loss, and thus prepare by it line heart of a pagen in Tanganylin or larms or China. We to not want you merely so send us money that we can send to line Holy Pather—(for that is what we do with all your offerigm). We want you to become more Christ-like, to think pages of the Holy Pather—(for that is will more the first-like, to think pages of the mind of Christ, in will more the first-like, and to particle of the Cross that you may share in the glory and loys of the Resurrection, dur appeal for the Missions is spiritual, and if you have the spirit of Christ is your soul, you will dear yourself semething for His sake.
