'Big-Sister, Little-Sister'
Orientation Program Opens Nazareth
More Than 400 Begin College Classes

More than 400 college women will begin classes at Nazareth College next Wednesday, September 14. Registration has been in progress this week and regular class sessions will be held on Wednesday.
On Thursday morning, Sept. 15, Bishop James E. Kearney will celebrate the Mass of the Holy Ghost and speak to the entire student body and the faculty, following which breakfast will be served in the college cafeteria.
Preceding the college opening, the Freshman Class will have the usual orientation period, beginning Monday morning, Sept. 12 at 9 o'clock. Freshman resident students will arrive on campus Sunday afternoon and out-of-town students who are planning to "drop-off" campus will also register from one to five on Sunday afternoon.
Approximately half of the class are from Rochester and suburbs and a large number are residents of western and central New York. The class also includes a nursing student from Bangalore, India, several students from the metropolitan area, two music students from Boston, and a half dozen students from the Capital area.

A new year begins at Nazareth College.

NAZARETH COLLEGE will greet a large group of freshmen with a "Big-Sister," "Little-Sister" orientation program on Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 12 and 13.
Building around the theme, "All the World's a Stage," the Juniors will present the social program. A battery of aptitude and achievement tests will be given to the new students under the direction of Sister Saint Catherine, Dean of Studies.
The program will open an assembly Monday morning, at which Sister Rose Angela, Dean, will welcome the freshmen. The testing program will follow. The Juniors will take over officially at a luncheon on Tuesday.
Immediately following, an Information Center will be conducted in the Social Room of the Administration Building. All the campus organizations will be here represented. A variety show will get under way at 2:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Featured in this assembly of song and dance will be the Junior orchestra, and the St. Pat's Players, also members of the Junior "Big Sister" class. A skit featuring William Shakespeare will follow.
TUESDAY EVENING a "Big Sister," "Little-Sister" banquet will close the program. Banquet speakers include Sister Rose Angela, Dean and the Rev. William Shannon, chaplain.
During the summer big Sisters were active in introducing their "Little-Sisters" to college life. They prepared an attractive introductory booklet which was sent to all freshmen and corresponded with them individually.

FLORA ROMANO, 133 Post Avenue, a graduate of Nazareth Academy, won the full tuition scholarship offered by the American Legion.

Holder of a full tuition scholarship given by the Class of 1954 is Mrs. Laura Polla, 133 Van Antwerp Street, Auburn, a graduate of Auburn West High School.
Many of the New York State scholarship winners were also successful contestants in the Nazareth College competitive scholarship examinations held last spring. Other tuition scholarships awarded as a result of those examinations went to the following: Audrey Moran, Ontario, N.Y.; Wayne Centra, New York; Carole O'Connor, 466 Remington Street, St. Agnes High School; Nanette Rieker, Neumann High School, 6725 Sheridan Drive, Williamsville; Jean McGahan, 74 Woodlawn Street, Nazareth Academy - Art scholarship; Rosalie Leonardo, Music Scholarship; Mary Agnes Alrutz, 12 Union St., Batavia, Notre Dame High School, Batavia, and Judith Boyd, 52 Spring Street, Cuba, Cuba Central School - Music Scholarships; Marilyn Plumb, 2221 Niskayana Drive, Schenectady, Nott Terrace High School - Art scholarship; Stephanie T. AMONG WOMEN
'Under Two Flags'

By Mary Louise Boyd

During the past week I have had the pleasure of reading three pamphlets by Father Albert J. Shamone, entitled "Safe Slant on Sex," "Under Two Flags" and "Our Lady's Ultimatum." By all means, read them yourself, and suggest to the proper authorities that your church or organization buy a quantity of them for distribution at parish meetings or in the parish "complet-rack."
Today I should like to discuss "Under Two Flags" which concerns itself with the question of Church and State, wherein under Father Shamone's examination the issues emerge clearly and simply. Pointing out that "there are three answers: two extremes, one in between. They are Liberalism, Caesarism, and Catholicism." Father Shamone traces the development of these extremes and then demonstrates that Caesarism is anti-God and that Liberalism is illogical and pernicious.

Congress the authority to establish a State Church as in England (from which the colonies had just recently declared independence) just as specifically declares it the right to prohibit the exercise of religion.
"CONGRESS SHALL make no law respecting the establishment of religion," so the amendment reads. But it does not, and there, in the same tone it continues, "... or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." If that means anything, it means this: "We the people of the United States are telling you, Congress, that you cannot establish a State Church. But, lest you interpret this to mean the abolition of religion, we also forbid you to prohibit the free exercise thereof."
The pamphlets are published by The Catholic Information Society, 214 West 31st St., New York 1, New York.
