Resurgence Of Faith Needed Says General In Radio Talk

New York —(NC)— The battle in the world today is for the souls of men, and the greatest weapon available to us as individuals and as a nation is the spiritual heritage that is ours, Lt. Gen. Thomas F. Hickey, who commanded the largest concentration of troops on the Korean front, has said.

"The outcome of the crises confronting us will not be decided by the materialistic means that are available to us, but by a resurgence of the faith of our fathers," the General said over the Mutual Broadcasting System radio program, "Faith in Our Times," which is produced in cooperation with National Council of Catholic Men.

GEN. HICKEY, who commanded the IX Corps in Korea, is commanding officer of the Third Army at Fort McPherson, Ga.

"My Faith tells me that I am on this earth for the purpose of working out my own salvation. I know that my first job is to save my own immortal soul. But Christ also taught me that the basic rule of His way of life is love of God and love of neighbor.

"So, I have the responsibility, too, of living my life in such a way as to show the sure road to eternity for those who need such guidance," the General said in reviewing the teachings of his Faith.

"I believe that I, as an Army commander, have an obligation to God and to my country to give sound moral example to those who look to me for leadership."

General Hickey began his army career as an enlisted man in 1916.

Film Reviewer Blasts Star For Suggestive Movie Role

Many of us have asked ourselves why responsible Catholic stars of stage, screen, radio and TV consent to play suggestive roles in the movies or on stage.

This question was recently raised again when William T. Mooring of the Los Angeles Tidings reviewed the film "The Girl Rush" currently playing at movie houses across the country.

ROSALIND RUSSELL

Rosalind Russell is the star of the film and her husband Frederick Brisson, producer.

"Now I am asking myself," writes Mooring, "why a Catholic producer and a Catholic star, not only consented to work on such a picture, but actually conceived and executed the whole idea from start to finish. Why? Do they not give the public too little credit for taste and intelligence and so claim too little for themselves?"

IN A MUSICAL comedy with a Las Vegas setting, the usually sophisticated and highly intelligent Miss Russell is seen in a role "the other girl named Russell might well have made for Howard Hughes."

No one who has seen "Sister Kenny" or the many other roles which have gained for Miss Russell the plaudits of the critics can possibly conceive of her cast in a film so singularly bad on all counts.

As for costuming, Mooring reports, "I doubt that there ever was a time, or that the mass movie public ever demand such sacrifice of clothing on the part of any respected screen personality."

'Martin Luther' Banned In Brazil

New York—(CRNS)—Showing of the film "Martin Luther" has been banned in theatres of Brazil by the country's Chief Censor of Public Entertainments.

The development was announced here by Robert E. A. Lee, executive secretary of Lutheran Church Productions, Inc., sponsors of the motion picture.

He reported to the annual meeting of the organization's board of directors that the ban was imposed under a legal provision authorizing the censor to refuse a license for the exhibition of any picture he deems "offensive to the community or to religion."

Theatre showings of the film, a feature-length documentary on the life of the 16th century Protestant Reformation leader, previously were prohibited in the Philippines, Peru, Egypt and Canada's Quebec Province.

David Wayne resumes his musical comedy career Saturday, Sept. 24, when he joins Judy Garland in special song and dance numbers on the premiere of CBS Television's "Ford Star Jubilee" series. The 90-minute program, in color, marks Miss Garland's television debut.

Geneva Weddings

Geneva — Miss Helen Jean Maher, daughter of Mr. William J. Maher and the late Mrs. Maher, and Richard John Koch, Union Springs, were married on son of Mr. and Mrs. John Koch, Sept. 3 in St. Stephen Church, Geneva.

The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor, officiated at the ceremony.

Maid of honor was Miss Lorraine Monaco and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Maher, sister of the bride, and Miss Helen Koch, sister of the bridegroom.

Charles Schenck of Union Springs was best man and ushers were Robert B. Maher and Richard J. Maher, brothers of the bride.

THE BRIDE is a graduate of DeSales High School and the bridegroom is an alumnus of Union Springs Central High School.

Geneva — Miss Alice Marie Taney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius F. Taney, and Louis M. LeBrun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosario W. LeBrun, Waterloo, were married on Sept. 3 in St. Francis de Sales Church, Geneva.

The Very Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor, performed the nuptial ceremony.

Mrs. James Kane was matron of honor and bridesmaids included Miss Doris Litzenberger, Seneca Falls, Mrs. Frank Sganga, Waterloo, a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Elizabeth Skellan, Kingston.

Flower girl was Miss Ann Robinson, Norfolk, Va., a niece of the bride.

BEST MAN was Edward Heierman, Waterloo, and ushers were Robert Taney, brother of the bride, Frank Sganga and Paul LeBrun, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of De Sales High School and the bridegroom of Waterloo High School.

Geneva — Miss Joan Dwyer, daughter of Mrs. James T. Dwyer and the late Mr. Dwyer, and H. William Gilbert, son of Mrs. Silas H. Gilbert and the late Mr. Gilbert, were married on Sept. 3 in St. Stephen Church, Geneva.

Ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor.

Miss Margaret Dwyer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

BOTH BRIDE and bridegroom are graduates of De Sales High School. The bride attended Our Lady of Good Counsel College, White Plains, and was graduated from Freeman Business Institute. The bridegroom attended St. Bonaventure University.

Edward M. Gilbert, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Ushers included John M. Sullivan, Joseph S. Gilbert, J. Francis Sullivan, and Bernard L. Gilbert.

Actor Laughton Listed To Open Radio Series

CHARLES LAUGHTON

Los Angeles —(NC)— Veteran actor Charles Laughton will lead off the opening of the tenth year of "The Hour of St. Francis" with a narration of the story of St. Francis of Assisi and the Wolf on Sunday, Sept. 11.

The Laughton program, sponsored by the Federated Provinces of the Third Order of St. Francis, will be heard over more than 600 stations.

HEADQUARTERS here said that outlets carrying "The Hour of St. Francis" are located in every part of the United States and Canada, and in Hawaii, Alaska, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand, Ceylon, India and British Guiana.

Father Terence Cronin, O.F.M., assistant director of the program, stated that "The Hour of St. Francis" is offering its listeners a booklet describing the life and ideals of St. Francis to celebrate its first decade. The booklet includes a section telling how the way of the Poverello may be followed in the modern world.

Dansville Women's Groups Sponsor Virgin Mary Film

Altar-Rosary Society of St. Patrick's Church and the Christian Mothers Society of St. Mary's Church have joined with the Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus of Dansville in sponsoring the showing of the film "I Sing Of A Maiden" at the first fall meeting of the Auxiliary on Monday, Sept. 12, at 8 p.m. in the K. of C. Hall.

The 90 minute feature film on the joys and sorrows of the Blessed Virgin is told with great respect and tenderness in drama and song.

A LARGE, lavishly costumed cast of professional New York actors are employed to make "I Sing Of A Maiden," a vivid, moving portrayal, accurate in every detail.

Monsignor John J. Dougherty, Professor of Sacred Scripture at the Immaculate Conception Seminary in Darlington, N.J., and Regent of the Institute of Judeo-Christian Studies at Seton Hall University, is the narrator of the production. Monsignor Dougherty is one of the most renowned Scriptural authorities in the nation.

A social hour will follow the showing of the film.

Movie Premiere To Benefit Italy's Boys Town Projects

New York—(NC)—Msgr. John Patrick Carroll-Abbing, founder and director of the Boys Towns of Italy, will make a special trip to the United States to attend the premiere of the new 20th-Cenury-Fox movie, "The Left Hand of God," at the Roxy Theater here September 21. Proceeds from the premiere will benefit the Boys Towns of Italy.

The movie is based on the best-seller book by William E. Barrett, noted Catholic author. Humphrey Bogart, who stars in the Cinema-Scope picture with Gene Tierney, also will attend the premiere. Mrs. George P. Skourkas is chairman of the premiere benefit committee.

THE STORY concerns an American flier who is downed in the mountains in China during World War II. The action centers around a Catholic mission in China and the activities of the principal characters in the mission life.

Patterned after the famed Boys Town, Neb., the Boys Towns of Italy were founded 11 years ago by Msgr. Carroll-Abbing. Their programs have been developed principally from American contributions. There now are eight of the Boys Towns in Italy and a string of "all day care" centers.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have avoided real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they fell more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.
