Holy Hour To Open Youth Adoration Group Program

Catholic young people of the Rochester area will begin their fifth year of monthly Holy Hours Sunday, Sept. 18, at St. Joseph Church, Rochester, 10:30 p.m.

Sponsored in past years by parish- and school sodality groups, the Holy Hour program this year will have its own organization, according to Rev. Edward Steinkirchner, diocesan director of parish sodalities.

JOHN BUTTON, vice president of the Rochester deanery sodality union and a member of St. Monica's parish sodality, will head the Catholic Youth Adoration (CYA) Society, with parish appointed teen-agers assisting him.

Original unit of the CYA was established in 1948 at the Church of St. Jean Baptiste in New York City. The Youth Adoration program is established in seven New York parishes and in over one hundred parishes throughout the country.

Button announced that membership cards will be presented to those attending Sunday's Holy Hour.

Prayers during the Holy Hour will be offered for world peace.

Library Open On Saturday

The Catholic Evidence Library, 50 Chestnut St., off lobby of Columbus Civic Center, which was closed for the summer will resume operations.

The library will be open on Saturdays from 11 to 4 p.m. with a collection of up-to-the-minute new books.

Waverly Rites Held For Elmira Priest's Father

Waverly — Solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Joseph F. Hogan, chaplain of Notre Dame High School, Elmira, for his father, Frank Hogan, Saturday morning in St. James Church, Waverly.

Mr. Hogan, who lived at 125 Providence Street, Waverly, is survived in addition to his priest-son, by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. John Hennessey of Audubon, New Jersey, and Mrs. John J. Conroy of Waverly; and six grandchildren.

Father Hogan was assisted by the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor of St. James as deacon, and the Rev. Joseph McCarthy of Rochester, former assistant pastor at St. James, as subdeacon. The Mass was at 10:30 a.m., following prayer services at the late home. Burial was in St. James cemetery.

The Sisters of Mercy from Notre Dame High School served as honorary bearers. Active bearers were James, Hugh, William, Bernard, Robert and William Hogan, all nephews of the deceased.

Present in the sanctuary were: Rt. Rev. Mgr. Francis J. Lane of Elmira; Very Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, chancellor of the Rochester diocese; Very Rev. Msgr. Dennis W. Hickey of Rochester.

Seated in the church were the following priests of the diocese: Reverend Fathers Joseph M. Namara, Thomas J. Toole, Philip E. McGhan, Michael L. Hynd, Leo G. Schwab, William A. Burns, H. J. Joyce, Alfred J. Horr, John Walsh, John S. Maloney, John A. Morgan, Hubert A. Biskamp and Basil O'Brien, all of Elmira; Rev. Joseph F. Merkel of Elmira Heights; Rev. A. J. Stec of Newark Valley; Rev. J. A. Murphy of Sonoyen; Joseph L. Hogan, James J. Martin, Joseph M. Egan of Rochester; Rev. W. J. O'Brien of Oswego; Revs. Raymond P. Nolan, William A. Hickey, John F. Duffy of Geneva; Rev. David Singerhoff of Forestburg; Rev. Francis J. Toolan of Cayuga; Rev. Thomas Brennan of Corning; Rev. John E. Walsh of South Waverly; and the Rev. Guy J. Wertz, assistant pastor of James cemetery.

Recitation of the rosary was held Friday evening at the home led by Father Joseph Hogan.

Proclaiming A Catholic School

THE CROSS OF CHRIST, symbolic of basic teaching in a Catholic School is placed above the door in the new eighth classroom addition to St. John the Evangelist School, Greece by His Excellency Auxiliary Bishop Casey. Dedication ceremony took place Sunday, Sept. 11. Assisting the Bishop is the Rev. Frederick W. Bush, assistant pastor. Watching is the Rev. Donald Lux, pastor. (Hi-Tone Photo).

Lyric Soprano Earns Honors

Mary Mazzara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mazzara of 51 Crombie St., in this year's first place winner in Rochester's eighth annual Youth Week. Last year she was tied for first place.

A lyric soprano, she is a graduate of St. Francis Xavier School and a sophomore at St. Agnes High School. In 1954 she also came in first at the first talent show conducted at St. Agnes High.

She has been heard over WHEC with the Stephen's A male quartet, having won for seven times.

The Delco Annual Show has featured her as a soloist for three successive years, and she has given her time to many benefit shows at the Knights of Columbus and the Red Cross.

She has spent four years at the Eastman School of Music and is a voice student of Lois Gilbert.

She is asked to sing at many wedding Masses and is heard at her parish church as soloist in the choir.

Bishop Endorses Benefit For Carmelite Sisters

Friends of the Discaled Carmelite Sisters who reside in the Monastery at 1530 East Ave. will conduct the annual benefit card party on Thursday, Oct. 13 at 8 p.m. in Columbus Civic Centre, 50 Chestnut St. The party has been given the following endorsement by His Excellency Bishop Kearney:

My dear Friends:
This annual card party for the Carmelite Convent has my sincere support. The building of the new Carmel has created a serious financial burden for the Sisters. Your generous support will make that burden so much lighter for them. The prayers of these good contemplatives will bring many blessings in return.

Sincerely in Christ
James E. Kearney.

St. Thomas Society Slates Meeting

St. Thomas Rosary Society will meet in the church hall on Wednesday, Sept. 21, following Holy Hour Services in the church at 8 p.m. Gerald Barrett will be guest speaker.

The new officers, who will preside at this meeting, are: president, Mrs. William Gasser; vice president, Mrs. Joseph Carey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl Schmanke; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Roney; treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Rugg.

Mrs. Gasser has appointed the following chairmen for this year: Sunshine, Mrs. Howard Peo; Program, Mrs. Melbourne J. Porter; Rosary Bands, Mrs. Raymond Dwyer; and Publicity, Mrs. Donald J. Byrne.

Refreshments will be served with Mrs. Raymond J. Engert's band acting as hostesses.

Laymen's Club Lists Editor

Rev. Henry Atwell, assistant editor of the Catholic Courier Journal, will be the featured speaker at the first meeting of the 1955-56 season of the Father Lyons Club on Thursday, Sept. 22, at 8:30 p.m.

His topic will be "English in the Church's Ritual". His talk will be preceded by a short business meeting and a short talk by Clarence W. Deckman on the forthcoming Mission Scenerama.

Meeting will be held at St. Andrew Seminary, Buffalo Road. The Central Council will present to the membership for approval a full program of activities for the fall and winter.

The Father Lyons Club is named after the late Monsignor Edward Lyons, its founder, former rector of St. Andrew's Seminary, and is open to membership to all Catholic men who have once studied for the priesthood, including those who have studied in a religious order or in a seminary outside the Rochester Diocese.

Knights of Equity To Hold Card Party

Benefiting its scholarship fund, Rochester County Knights of Equity will conduct a sing card party in Steve O'Hara's restaurant, 1823 East Ave. on Tuesday, Sept. 27 at 8 p.m.

Honorary chairman of the committee is the Rev. Roy B. Morphy, pastor of St. Jerome Church, East Rochester and court chaplain. Co-chairmen are John J. Haggerty, secretary to the Rochester detective chief and Det. Lt. John W. Rowan.
