Roger J. Schifferli Named Secretary Of Assumption Alumni

Roger J. Schifferli, a native of Rochester, was named secretary-treasurer of the Assumption College Alumni Association, Windsor, Ontario, Canada.

His appointment to the staff of the Windsor college with duties as a full-time officer of the Alumni Association was announced by Mrs. Rev. E.C. Schifferli, LeBel C.S.B., Assumption president, at the September meeting of the officers of the general executive of the Alumni Association. Schifferli is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schifferli, 27 E. Long Street. He was graduated from Aquinas Institute in 1949 and then enrolled at Assumption College where he won his bachelor of arts degree in 1953.

In his junior year, Roger was editor of the Assumption student annual, "The Ambassador" and was class president and valedictorian in his senior year.

He was employed in the Alumni office at Assumption since last June, when he completed two years duty with the U.S. Army.

Rev. J. F. Mallon, C.S.B., whom Schifferli succeeds as secretary-treasurer, was appointed faculty moderator of the Alumni Association.
