

Our Lady Of Mercy

THE FEAST OF Our Lady of Mercy, celebrated on September 24, is the patronal feast day of the Sisters of Mercy who conduct Elmira's new Notre Dame High School. Accordingly, "Mercy Day" was fittingly chosen as the dedication day for the new coeducational high school.

Our Lady of Mercy, known also as Our Lady of Ransom, was chosen as the protectress of a religious order founded by St. Peter Nolasco in 1218 for the redemption of Christian captives from the Moors. In 1696 the feast, celebrated on September 24, was extended to the whole Western Church.

Mother Mary Catherine McAuley, Irish foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, had always possessed special devotion to Our Lady, the Mother of Mercy, and the performance of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, exemplified in the 13th century Order of Mercy appealed to her. At her request, the new community under her care was named the "Institution of Our Blessed Lady of Mercy," with its patronal feast September 24.

Mother McAuley used to say of the word "mercy": "It has five letters, corresponding to the five sacred wounds of our sweet Saviour; it begins with 'M' and ends with 'Y', like the name of His ever Blessed Mother."
