

CHINA, JAPAN, PHILIPPINES, SOUTH AMERICA, INDIA, AFRICA

Mission Scenerama Preview

Missionaries Are Christ's Frontline Troops Carrying Faith To World

NORTH AFRICA—Father Gorden Fournier of the White Fathers of Africa dines here with a Muslim chief. Father Fournier will attend the Mission Scenerama Oct. 18 to 23 in Rochester.

FORMOSA—Sister Magdalena, graduate of Nazareth Academy in Rochester, meets refugee friends from China on the Island of Formosa. Sister Magdalena's 18 years with the Maryknoll Sisters includes years of service in China (until the communists expelled her), Hong Kong, Pusan, Korea and now Formosa where she went this year.

INDIA—Father Charles Young, formerly of Rochester, has spent 10 years with the Holy Cross Fathers missions in Bengal, India. Here he displays picture of the famous and feared Bengal tiger. His brother, Archbishop Freeman, Dean of India, will speak at the Mission Scenerama.

ASIAN LAY MISSIONERS—Miss Frances Wilkes (left) of Rochester serves with a Grade One mission team in Java, Indonesia. She sailed last year with Tong-in-teen, (right) Chinese Girl member, for Java. The story of the 100 young women serving the lay apostolate overseas with Girls will be told at the Mission Scenerama.

CATHOLIC AUXILIARIES—At the Chicago Training Center of the International Catholic Auxiliaries, Virginia Leary (left) points out Formosa where Cecily Lewis (center) is now working, to Roselyn Kulzer, (right). Miss Leary will explain mission work of the Auxiliaries at the Rochester Mission Scenerama.

AFRICAN GOLD COAST—Mother John Kennedy, Superior General of the Missionary Sisters Servants of the Holy Ghost, has served in the African Missions since 1945. Here she plays with a small child at her Gold Coast mission.

Far West Mission—Sister Carol of Our Lady of Victory, Missionary Sister, trains altar boys at mission in Azusa, California.

Sister Clara Baudison, a teaching member of the newly founded Sisters of the Divine Spirit. The Sisters wear modern garb and were founded last year with 52 members at Erie, Pa., by Father Lawrence Louis of the Divine Word Society.

SELMA, ALABAMA—Sister James Eileen of the Rochester Sisters of St. Joseph teaches catechism to boys at Selma Mission. The Sisters of St. Joseph from Rochester conduct a school and hospital for the Colored at Selma.

Meet These Missionaries At The Scenerama In The Memorial

REV. A.M. SHERIDAN, O.F.M.
Franciscan Friars

SISTER AUGUSTINE, S.M.S.M.
Marist Missions

REV. DANIEL DAUGHERTY
Holy Ghost Fathers

REV. INNOCENT SIMONI
Verona Fathers

MOTHER TERESA MARY
Carmelites

REV. WILLIAM KING
Catholic Near East

SISTER RICHARD
Medical Missions

REV. JOSEPH MCNICKLE
Mill Hill Fathers