David Fetler To Direct Nazareth College Glee Club

Nazareth College Glee Club will make its first appearance of the season at the Father-Daughter dinner party, to be held in the college dining room, Saturday evening, Oct. 22. The new director, David Fetler, will lead the students in a program which includes Mozart's Jesu, Word of God Incarnate, the English version of his Ave Verum, Lift Thine Eyes from Mendelssohn's Elijah, and the Alma Mater of Nazareth College.

In addition to his duties at Nazareth as the Glee Club Director and instructor in Choral Conducting, Fetler teaches choral work at the Eastman School of Music where he is a candidate for the doctoral degree.

He received his Bachelor of Music and his Master of Music degrees from the Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N.J. He also conducts the Cantata Singers of the Eastman School of Music, a selected group of the talented singers of the school.

Fetler studied at the Juilliard School of Music and the Columbia University School of Music and has had special work in conducting with the famous conductor, Pierre Monteaux. At the Eastman School he is majoring in composition under Dr Howard Hanson.

Prior to coming to Rochester, where he plans to make his home, he conducted various choral societies in New Jersey, New York City, and Evanston, Ill. During the second world war he served as choral director and band leader in the U.S. Army.

After the Glee Club concert, fathers and daughters will enjoy an evening of dancing.
