Father O'Brien Urges Spiritual Reading To CDA

Addison — Two of the easiest paths leading to the spiritual life are spiritual reading and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

The Rev. Bartholomew J. O'Brien, pastor of St. Peter and Paul Church of Elmira made mention of this information as guest speaker at the annual banquet of St. Catherine Court, Catholic Daughters of America, held at the Baron Steuben Hotel in Corning last Thursday evening. He was introduced by Mrs. Jerome Hovey, grand regent.

Father O'Brien stressed that two strong resolutions are needed to travel these paths—first—to spend ten minutes each day in spiritual reading, especially the Gospels, The Imitation of Christ, The Introduction to a Devout Life and The Lives of the Saints; Second, a visit to the Blessed Sacrament each time, if possible, one passes by the church.

At the banquet, invocation was given by the court chaplain, the Rev. Francis T. Turner, pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Addison. Mrs. Hovey, who acted as toastmaster, gave the address of welcome, and introduced the soloists, Mrs. James Harrison and Miss Patricia Feig. Karen Hopper of Addison gave a tap dance specialty. Community singing was led by Miss Feig and greetings were extended by the District Deputy Mrs. Prudence McMahon of Elmira and Miss Margaret Barrett of Corning, past district deputy. The program was concluded with benediction by Father Turner.

Others attending were: Mrs. Eleanor Brown, Mrs. Pillie French, Mrs. Gannon, Mrs. Josephine Elias, Miss Louise M. McCarty, Mrs. Florence Kasper, Miss Agnes Kester, Mrs. Margaret Lacy, Mrs. Elizabeth Lovette of Court St. Rita, Elmira; Miss Alice Quirk grand regent, Misses Helen and Sarah Sullivan, Watkins Glen; Mrs. Margaret Crandall, grand regent, Mrs. Carolyn Giglio, Mrs. Theresa Dessener, Mrs Phyllis Weber, Miss Gerry Fitzgerald, Miss Mary Gearnon, St. Ann's Court, Hornell; Miss Rose DiCalta, grand regent, Mrs. Doris Bennett, Miss Mary Hart, Mrs. Thomas Regan, Mrs. Harold Margaret Keigley, Miss Madeline mons, Mrs. William McCaig, Mrs. DiCalta, Mrs Helen M. Dailey, Bernard Reagan, Mrs. Michael Court St. Joseph, Corning; Mrs. Cordaro; Mrs. Floyd DelGrosso, Frank Reagan, Mrs. Gilbert Dew- Mrs. Elmer Knepley, Mrs. Herey, Mrs. Andrew Green, Mrs. bert Kelly, Mrs. Raymond Calkins, Mrs. Dominic Doddato, Mrs. Martin L. Rural Converts Outnumber City Count, Survey Shows

Notre Dame—(NC)—Ave Maria magazine has followed up its survey, which indicated that rural areas of the United States have a higher ratio of converts than urban areas, by asking why this situation exists.

In its November 5 issue, Ave Maria presents a series of comments by members of the Hierarchy, directors of information bureaus and mission societies, and priests specializing in convert work.

Bishop Vincent S. Waters of Raleigh held: "It is pretty generally accepted that secularism has made greater inroads in urban life than in rural life. . ."

Father William A. Michell, C.S.P., superior general of the Paulist Fathers: "In urban centers priests are so busy caring for the members of the flock that they have been inclined to pass over 'other sheep.'"

Father John A. O'Brien, preacher and author of convert-making literature: ". . . rural residents normally take more interest in religion and attend church in greater numbers and with greater regularity than residents of cities, especially the larger ones."

Earthquakes, Floods, Mice By Thousands

Jowai, N. India — This mission in the Khasi Hills of Assam has an unenviable, and probably unmatched, record of hardships, according to Father Tony Tognocchi, Salesian Missioner stationed here.

In 1951 a series of earthquakes leveled most buildings to the ground. Next, a great drought completely destroyed the crops. The people were still trying to recover from those two blows this summer, when floods caused by torrential rains swept through the area and washed away everything in their path.

The latest and most unusual hardship is a plague of mice. Thousands and thousands of mice are marching through homes in search of something to eat. They are so savage and vicious that cats refuse to attack them.

Despite such trials, Father Tognocchi reports that his Christian families retain an optimistic faith. One man summed up their attitude by saying:

"Everything we had is lost, but the good God, who looks after the beasts of their fields, will also look after us."
