Children In Sacred Heart Ceremony

DEDICATION of their "school, work and future" to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is made by the children of Holy Family School, Auburn under the direction of the Rev. George Welsenborn, S.S.C.C. (right) and their pastor, the Rev. William E. Davie.

Auburn Students Dedicate Work To Sacred Heart

Auburn—In a fitting ceremony for the observance of the Feast, Christ the King, the grammar school-pupils of Holy Family School dedicated their "school, work, and future" to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Standing before a candlelighted, flower-decorated shrine of the Sacred Heart in the school hall, the grades from the first to the eighth, pledged their fidelity to the King of Kings under the direction of Rev. George Welsenborn, of the Sacred Heart Fathers, Our Lady of Victory Church, of Rochester, assisted by the pastor of Holy Family Church, Rev. William Davie.

DeSales High Eams Trophy

Geneva—De Sales High School paraded off with the coveted gold Halloween spookerie trophy Monday, Oct. 31 as the school "making the best appearance" in the spookerie parade. The trophy emblematic of Halloween was donated this year by Mrs. Mary Hall, manager of Gilbert's Jewelers.

Debate Team, Fisher Forum Attend Weekend Tourneys

The debating team of St. John Fisher College and the Fisher Forum traveled to Houghton College and to Hamilton College to participate in two tourneys last weekend. On November 4 the varsity squad went to Houghton to defend their title in the Western New York State League. The League is composed of the leading colleges in Western New York State. St. John Fisher College captured first place in this tourney last year when it was held at St. Bonaventure.
