Finest In Fund Raising

from the BEGINNING of the campaign to the END of the three-year pledge period in the Fund Raising profession, Foley Associates Inc., originally known as the National Catholic fund Paising Organization, have enjoyed a phenomenul rate of growth This has been due to their rigid adherence to the principles that led to their founding. Only the name has been changed to avoid the possibility of confusion with an official agency of the cause the founders felt that something was lacking in the field of Catholic fund raising. It was felt that campaigns could be conducted successfully without recourse to high pressure methods and question able techniques further, Foley Associates gation to its clients should not end with the conclusion of the campaign but should extend throughout the pledge payment

With these beliefs in mind: foley Associates joined to form an organization That put their principles into action, Out standing men from existing companies campaign procedures based on this entire'y new concept of Catholic funu raising Basic to the campaign plan was the betief that any activity in which the Church was involved must be conducted in such a manner as to reflect only credit on Catholic institutions It was further fest that only Catholic Directors who knew the Catholic point of view should be members of the organization

The extent to which Foley Associates Inc., have been successful in incorporating these principles into their compaign plans is attested to by the many excellent ord they have achieved in the relatively short period of time they have been in existence as a company. We intend to see that this excellent record is never jeopardized and that the principles that led to
