

With the Other Antiques

Goodbye to line and pins—symbol of old-fashioned washday drudgery. An electric clothes dryer does the job of drying clothes better, faster—and automatically, too!

A sweet-smelling, smooth wash dried in an electric dryer requires no more work than it takes to tumble in wet clothes from the washer and set the dial.

See your electric appliance dealer now. He'll show you how to get a better wash with almost no work at all—with an electric clothes dryer in your laundry.

'Don't Fence Me In' Writes Mission Sister

"Don't Fence Me In," wrote one of the three missionary Sisters serving the Papago Indians to Monsignor Bernard Cullen of the Marquette League, 289 Fourth Avenue, New York 10, N.Y., "at least until some benefactor sends us a heater for our convent home."

The one-story abode convent is surrounded by an octill fence—very picturesque when its candlewood stalks with scarlet blossoms but not quite adequate at a convent wall when the stalks break leaving annoying gaps.

The three little missionaries would like to be fenced in adequately some day but first on their request list is the urgently needed heater. It costs $150 and the good Sisters are asking St. Joseph to bless those who may contribute to it.

Also the 45 little Papagos (more when the cotton picking season ends) who are taught by the Sisters in the mission school across from the convent will remember kind benefactors in their prayers.

Former Minister Explains Conversion

Port Huron, Mich. (NC)—A convert to Catholicism, who was a Lutheran minister for 25 years, explained to "Port Huron's First Friday club his reasons for becoming a Catholic.

He is Dr. Felix G. Robinson, who is assigned to Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Speaking on "Understanding Your Neighbor," Dr. Robinson explained that every man seeks to relate himself to God. He then declared that in his search for such a contact during his college years and in the Lutheran ministry, he realized such a relationship only in Catholic Church.

"The sentry must give the wife, four children and five other relatives into the Church, five years ago.

The hardest fall a man can take is to fall over his own bluff. Anonymous.
