

Carmelite Principal To Address Women

Auburn—The Rev. Brendan Hourihan, O. Carm., principal of Mt. Carmel High School, will be the speaker at the December meeting of the Carmel Ladies Club Tuesday, Dec. 6 at 8 p.m. in the school.

The Rev. Hourihan's talk will be preceded by a short business meeting at which reports will be given on membership and the fall festival. Mrs. John J. Karbinski is in charge of a large committee arranging the social half of the evening which will include cards and refreshments. Those desiring to play bridge or canasta are requested to bring their own cards.

MRS. GEORGE A. SNYDER, president, in announcing the meeting stressed that members are encouraged to bring guests to all meetings of the club and also that membership in the club is open to every woman interested in Mt. Carmel High School. Mrs. Samuel Cavatolo, financial secretary and Miss Genevieve E. Diehl, treasurer, are preparing reports on the membership which now includes several hundred Auburn women.

Auxiliary Elects Slate Of Officers

Auburn—Mrs. Laura N. Murphy is the newly elected president of the Ladies Auxiliary of Auburn Council 207, Knights of Columbus. Also elected with Mrs. Murphy were: Mrs. John A. Kinsella, first vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Casbarro, second vice-president; Mrs. Marie Purdy, financial secretary; Mrs. Douglas Cameron, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Reardon, treasurer; Mrs. John F. Cianciolo, Mrs. Teresita Alfieri, trustees and Mrs. John F. Orr, organizer.

The newly elected officers will be installed following the Christmas party in December.

Installation Held, Christmas Sale Slated By Group

Auburn—Installation of officers was the highlight of the business meeting of the Our Lady of Mercy Guild Monday, Nov. 21, in Mercy Hospital. As previously announced Mrs. David H. Nangle, president, was installed as president with the following officers: Miss Lee Piccaro, Mrs. John T. Gartin, Mrs. Gerard A. Leach, and Miss Joan O'Brien, Sister M. Consilia, O.S.F., under whose guidance the merchandising projects of the Guild have been inaugurated. Installed the officers.

A Christmas sale has been scheduled by the Guild for Friday, Dec. 2, in the Nurses Home. A large variety of gifts and toys, and religious articles, suitable for Christmas giving will be on sale. Mrs. Sigmund Koslowski, Mrs. John Carnicelli and Mrs. Stanley Milewski are in charge of this pre-Christmas sale.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Donald Crawford, hospital chairman, served refreshments. Members of her committee included: Mesdames Paul Ringwood, Edward Secaur, Thomas Crawford, Donald Finch, John Walevicak, Robert Kenny and Miss Nancy Germano.

First-Friday Club To Meet

Auburn—First Friday Club of Auburn Council 207, Knights of Columbus, will meet Dec. 2 at 8 p.m. in the club house dining room to hear a talk by Dr. Robert J. McManus of Auburn whose topic will be "Talking Care of Your Heart." John M. Alger, grand knight, will present the speaker. Charles F. Dae First Friday Club chairman, has announced that "reservations may be made by telephoning the club."

Elizabeth Heeks Services Offered

Funeral services for Elizabeth Heeks, 215 Clifford Ave., who died Nov. 26, 1955, were held Tuesday from 10 to 11 a.m. at St. Michael Church.

Solemn Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Paul Schnack, assisted by Rev. John Phillips, deacon and Rev. Thomas Erdie, subdeacon. Rev. Arthur F. Florack was in the sanctuary. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Father Schnack giving the final blessing.

Miss Heeks was the daughter of the late John and Victoria Wollensak Heeks, and is survived by four brothers, John, William and Andrew Heeks, and Brother Jude, S.V.D. of East Troy, Wis.; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Leimbarger, Miss Eleanor Heeks and Mrs. Emma Gosson of Utica. She was a member of the Daughters of Mary of St. Michael Church, Branch 104, L.C.B.A., Ladies Auxiliary 286, Knights of St. John, St. Mary's Junior League and the Holy Childhood Guild.

A niece of the late Andrew Wollensak, founder of the Wollensak Optical Company, Miss Heeks had been employed by the company until illness caused her retirement five years ago.

Memorial Service Held By Geneva KC Council

Geneva—Annual memorial service of Geneva Council, Knights of Columbus, was held Sunday in the Council home on Milton St.

The Rev. Darfel Tormey of St. Francis de Sales Church spoke briefly reminding the assembly and relatives and friends of the deceased members that death is but the beginning of life beyond this earth.

Grand Knight Michael McDonald presided at the service. He listed the names of members of the organization who had died during the past year with a brief history of each one.

THE SERVICE included the Living Rosary by the members, and prayers for the dead by the Council chaplain, the Rev. William Hickey, of St. Stephen Church.

The memorial service was in memory of Daniel Kane, Charles Hagen, Carl Dreher, and Thomas Bolger, who have died during the past year, and for all deceased members of the organization.

Families, relatives, and friends were present for the ceremonies. After the program, refreshments were served by the K. of C. Auxiliary.

Al Heffernan was chairman of arrangements for the memorial service.

Family Life Institute Lauded By Magr. Toomey

Continued—Declaring that "the security of America begins in the homes," Rt. Rev. Magr. Joseph Toomey of Syracuse strongly commended the Council of Social Agencies Monday of last week for considering the establishment of a Family Life Institute.

The priest, a widely known and active participant in the field of social welfare appeared as a guest speaker at a meeting of the Council in the Cortland Free Library. His references to the Institute came after a unanimous vote by council members approved the appointment of a committee to study the feasibility and value of an Institute.

Magr. Toomey is a graduate of St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester.
