Legion Of Mary Reports Progress Made At Meeting

Rochester Curia of the Legion of Mary will meet Dec. 16 at 8 p.m. in St. Anne school hall. Annual reports will be received from both the senior and junior praesidia of Holy Family Church.

At the November meeting of the Curia the annual report of Mary Immaculate, Queen of Peace, Praesidium at St. Andrew Church was accepted. The praesidium has a current membership of 14 active members and 220 auxiliary members. During the past year several different types of work were undertaken at the direction of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George W. Eckl. A total of 301 census calls were made; 76 shut-ins were visited; a nursery was staffed during the 10 and 11 Masses each Sunday; visitations were made weekly to five nursing homes; people were assisted to attend Mass; 28 Puerto Rican families were visited; a new pamphlet rack was installed and supervised; help was given to the Catholic Information Booth run by the Curia at the Monroe County Fair; and a new apostolate to prospective and former Catholics was begun.

Because the fourth Sunday of this month falls on Christmas Day, the next Third Order of St. Francis meeting will take place on the third Sunday, Dec. 18 at 8:30 p.m. in St. Patrick Church, 44 Plymouth Ave. North. ALL TENTHIES are urged to make a special effort to attend as part of their preparation for the great feast of Christmas, so beloved of the holy St. Francis, the announcement said. George H. Siegrist reminds tentatives that he has the Franciscan Almanac for sale. He says this is an important charity since the cure of the Holy Places is in the custody of Franciscans and should have the earnest and consistent support of every member of the Third Order.

Emil G. Eckert Renamed Colonel
Emil G. Eckert of 150 Turpin St. was re-elected Colonel of Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John, this time for a three-year term in accordance with a change in the constitution at the regimental meeting, Friday in Knights and Ladies of St. John Clubhouse, 365 Andrews St. Renamed lieutenant colonel was John G. Bittner, who is president of the New York Grand Commandery and a city councilman. Edward Katzenberger, a Knight of St. John for 47 years, was re-elected major of the First Battalion.

JOSEPH VOLPE, former Captain of the Color Company was unanimously elected Major of the Second Battalion. He is a former president of his commandery. The regimental officers belong to these commanderies, Col. Eckert, St. Eustace No. 39; Lt. Col. Bittner, St. Michael No. 40; Major Volpe, Mt. Carmel 308.

TWO AT KODAK PARK SHARE $1,000 AWARD
For working together on a suggestion idea, two Kodak Park men today are sharing a $1,000 award. The two are William J. Beldue, Jr., of 58 Barthol Road, employed in the machine department, and John H. Streb of 149 Weston Road, dental x-ray department. They devised a mechanical stop for the chute that directs finished dental x-ray packets to a conveyor belt. Uniform release of the packets prevents jamming and insures proper positioning for more packaging.
