Brings Gl's Cigarettes And Medials Cardinal Visits Armed Forces In Pacific

By BEV. PATRICK O'CONNOR.

"Tokye -- (NC) -- The ten-day schedule in Japan and Korea of His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York and Military Vicar of United States Armed Forces, is louded as a Christmas tree,

At its peak on Christmas night it reaches into frosty Korea, where the Cardinal celebrates midnight Mass in a forward area for soldiers of the 24th Division. SEVEN O'CLOCK Christmas morning finds him climbing into a helicopter to be whirled to the 7th Infantry Division, also in a forward area, where he offers his second Mass. At 11:30 he officiates at Benediction in the symnasium at the headquarters of the 1st Corps. In the early afternoon he addresses service men gathered at 8th Army head. quarters in Seoul. The Cardinal then flies to Osan, where an Aar Force congregation attends his third Mass of Christmas Day Cardinal Spellman arrived in Tokyo from Alaska Tussday eye-ning (December 20).

One of the Cardinal's first concerns on landing was to convey a reassuring message to a well as medals and cards to voung Air Force lleutenant give, to servicemen, He anwhose wife and baby had to leaves the plane for a hospital pounds of clothing donated by in Anchorage, Alaska.

Wednesday's schedule included

m

ey jil th

Wednesday's schedule included evening Mass at the Tokyo chapel center, where Father (Lt Col.) Albert Knier of Cheyenne is the Catholic chaplain. Wed nesday afternoon the Cardinal blessed and laid the cornerstone Blessed and laid the cornerstone Hone Kone Many America arian could have de of the Columban Fathers' new Hong Kong Many Amer-Tokyo church in St. Patrick's icans travel half way around parish. This is the first parish the world to become Catholics. in Japan to have St. Partrick as Father George N. Gilligan, its patron. THURSDAY BROUGHT the Maryknoll Missioner from Cardinal by plane and helicopter Brooklyn, and a chaplain durto Sendai, north of Tokyo, where ing World War II started a servicemen's center for Amerhe celebrated Mass at the headquarters of the 9th Corps. In ican sailors hère.

Sendal he visited the new Car-Besides handling tours, re dinal Spellman Hospital, built freshments, shopping trips and with donations from the Cardinal similar activities, Father Gilligan has also been kept busy and funds raised by chaplains." Friday was given to the Air catechising sailors brought to him by their "buddles." Force at Yokota Air Base. Recently after baptising a Christmas Eve is a long day young Negro sailor from Florfor the Cardinal, beginning with ida Father Gilligan was vest-Mass at six a.m. at the Far East ing to offer Mass, when the Air Force chapel in downtown hoy asked if he could serve the Mass, I thought it a strange Tokyo. After Mass he flies to Korea. While in Korea he is request," explains Father Gillischeduled to visit Pusan.

gan, "from one just baptized." Returning to Japan on the evening of December 26, the Car d was attounded to find that rockets which have led the way in their other dependencies. It imposes ternational scope. dinal will spend most of the next the lad was letter perfect in parish church which was in a regions in improving the status taxes on offerings received for the next two days with the United States both provers and ceremonies semirurined condition is being and compensation of American mariages, christenings and bur de Sales, a teaching order with sists he will marry only a Cath of the nation's 120 million daily reminders, report. Navy and Marines.

New York Cardinal Speliman waves good bye before leaving here to spend the lifth consecutive. Christmas season with American troops in the Far East.

well!

Cardinal Spellman brought | ing to Korea. half a million cigaretter as n ou n c e d that two million American Catholics during

For the 66-year-old prelate this is his 8th visit to the Far East, his 6th to Korea and his fifth consecutive Christmas visit to men and women of the United States armed forces in Thanksgiving week were comthe Far East, arlan could have done no bet ter: I've often wondered how long that boy thought about becoming a Catholic and how he had learned he Mass so

Town Salutes New

Pastor With Rockets

Catholic Hospitals Get $60 Million From Ford Grant

New York (NC) — Catholic hospitals will receive a The answer came back in an total of $60,385,400 out of the $200 million grant which the American scrawl, "I will treat Ford Foundation is making to voluntary, non-profit hospitals you as one of my boys, but I throughout the United Suites, can't forget that you're a Puerto Rico, Hawaii and Alaska. SCHOOLS MAX use the prince."

This is revealed by a break, "bonus" grant, either principal or down of the Foundations list of income for faculty pay increases hospitals that share in the gift. or other needs, However, the in-beginning of his friendship with There are 808 Catholic institu- dividual shares of the $210 mil. Prince Rainier III, ruling head tions among the approximately lion grant must be placed in en- of the principality of Monaco, in 3,500 hospitals listed in the state dowment funds for ten years. 1950.

boys?"

For the ten years the income THE WILMINGTON, Del., TO BE ELIGIBLE, the state must be used for faculty salary priest arrived here with the nent said, hospitals must have increases. At the end of that prince for a two-month tour of been accepted for listing by the time the money may be used for the United States. By royal re-American Hospital Association as whatever purposes the schools quest, Father Tucker is acting of the date of the announcement decide. as aide and private secretary to of the grants, or have had their The grants made to hospitals the 32-year-old ruler on his first applications for listing on file may be used to improve or add visit to this country. Included with the AHA at the time of the to facilities and services, to in- in the itinerary are Texas, where announcement provided they are crease or train personnel, or to Prince Rainier will visit warapproved for listing by the as- conduct research. The money time buddles, and Wyoming, may not be used to meet current where his great-grandfather sociation.

The amount of the grant to operating expenses. each hospital was computed on the basis of the number of pati-ent days of services rendered by Peron Church-Tax the hospital, plus the number of births in the hospital. The gran in each case could range from Law Revoked minimum of $10,000 to a maxi-

Buenos Aires - (NC) - Anolic hospitals received the maxis other action has been taken by Sales. He was pastor of St. Anthe new government in fulfill-mum grant. While they constitute 27 per ment of its pledge to restore full cent of all the voluntary mon. profit hospitals in the United Church violated during the clos-States, Catholic hospitals take ing months of the Peron regime.

care of one-third of all the pati-served in such hospitals. dent Pedro Eugenio Aramburu AT THE SAME time, figures was a new decree exempting show that 147 Catholic colleges Catholic Church property from and universities in the United taxation. The effect of the de-States and Puerto Rico will re- cree was to revoke a law which ceive a total of $37,997,600 out of was adopted by the peronista grant of $210 million which the controlled Congress last May, ment. He grew to like Ameri-Ford Foundation is making avail. The Peron law struck particuable to increase faculty salaries. larly at Catholic private schools, Another 13 Catholic institutions most of which had been taxof higher learning will receive exempt because they gave free grants, but the award in each education to thousands of poor case has not yet been determined. children.

Tornada, Portugal -(NC) - The 615 institutions sharing the The people of this Portuguese $210 million grant are four-year, to January 1, 1855, when the tors and bishops, subject to the he also is pastor of the palace sion as an Oblate The people of this Portuguese 5210 million grant are routy on the foury of the people of this Portuguese 5210 million grant are routy of the foury of the four of the foury of the foury of the four of th so pleased to learn of the ap ported.

pointment of Father Antonio Martins de Figueiredo to their church that they decorated the foundation to schools tions, their temples, convents and town will greener? and shot off by the Foundation to schools tions, their temples, convents and town will greener? and shot off by the Foundation to schools tions, their temples, convents and town will greener? town with greeners and shot off by the Foundation to schools tions, their temples, convents and care of a religious order of in igible bachelor," Father Tucker Was altounded to find that rockets when he arrived. The "which have led the way in their other dependencies." It imposed ternational scope.

New York -- (RNS) -- "Dear Father," wrote a young man in a small country on the Riviers, 'can't you forget I'm a prince and treat me as one of your

Monaco Prince Tours U.S. With Chaplain

COURIER-JOURNAL. Friday, December 23, 1955

#у

ade nta transitione de la companya d hunted buffalo in 1898, Highlight of the trip for Father Tucker will be a Mass of thanksgiving he is to celebrate in St. Anthony's Church, Wilmington, Jan. 8 to mark his golden jubbilee as member of the Oblates of St. Francis de

How did an American pries

come to be court chaplain in the picturesque principality that could be fitted twice into New York's Central Park? THE ANSWER lies in part with the prince's Texan buddles. Serving in the French army under the name of Lieut. Grimaldi during the war, the future head of Monaco was attached as liaison officer to a Texas detachcans, finding their frankness and friendliness refreshing.

Monaco, a predominently Ro-

Upon coming to the throne in 1949, the Prince noted that his the prince informally and direct-

New York-Prince Ranier III, soverign of the tiny principality of Monaco, and his chaplain, the Very Rev. J. Francis Tucker, O.S.F.S., are shown on their arrival here The Prince, who is on his first visit to America, will attend a Mass of Thanksgiv ing in St Anthony's Roman Catholic Chuch, Wilmington, Del., on Sunday, Jan. 8, marking the 50th anniversary of his chap-lain's profession as an oblate of St. Francis de Sales, Father Tucker, former pastor of St. Anthony's Church for 25 years, will celebrate the Mass. Pince Ranier plans to make a six to eight week tour of the U.S. (RNS Photo) selected. Father Tucker was in many romances are false. They Rome at the time as a general- stem from the fact that he is counselor of the order. He was courteous in receiving visitors, natural choice, speaking such as the co-ed sent over by French and Italian fluently-and an American magazine, or act-also being an American. ress Grace Kelly. But he has no also being an American. As pastor of the church named idea of marrying them. He's no man Catholic country, has a con- after Monaco's patron, St. runabout.". cordat with the Vatican dating Charles, Father Tucker is as. Prince Rainier will be at the from 1863 which gives the ruler sisted by five priests of different Wilmington church on Jan. The new decre is retroactive the privilege of appointing pas- nationalities. As court chaplain when, Father Tucker marks the chapel of St. John the Baptist. sion as an Oblate. True to his word he treats "I may even pass us tion box," the prince said. "I may even pass the colle of all other themes, Brown and says:

Sibley's

