

St. Felix HN Sets Banquet

Clifton Springs—Members of the Holy Name Society of St. Felix Parish, Clifton Springs will hold their annual banquet at the Town Pump, on the evening of Jan. 16. It is expected that more than 125 men will attend.

Guest speaker will be the Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph Sullivan, pastor of Holy Cross Church, Ovid. Following the banquet, the society will hold the election of officers to direct the activities of the society for the year.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Only the humble person knows that he has more blessings than he deserves—that even his sorrows and his trials are less than he merits for his failings. The poor publican would not so much as lift up his eyes to the heavens, but Our Lord was more pleased with the confession of sin in the sinner than with the recounting of virtues by the righteous. The proud man in the midst of tragedy: "What have I done to deserve this?" The humble says: "Not my will, but Thine be done, O Lord."

When God became man, He appeared as a servant of a slave. Notice how the law of slavery was applied to Him: 1.) The slave had no redress if injured; no arm of the Roman law was stretched for his defense—"His judgment was taken away." 2.) The slave could own no property; Our Lord said: "The Son of Man hath nowhere to lay His head." 3.) The slave was a chattel who could be bought and sold; Our Lord was sold for thirty pieces of silver, which was the price of a slave in those days. 4.) A slave could be tortured and put to death; Our Lord was under the lash of slaves and was crucified as a slave. 5.) The law said the slave was not a man; Our Lord was foretold as being considered "a worm and no man."

What then is our Christian duty, except to be slaves—serving, ministering, considering ourselves less than others, sacrificing and being sacrificed in order that the Gospel of Christ may be spread in the world. Only the humble love the Missions of the Church. Those who consider their own interests first, are reluctant to make a sacrifice to the Holy-Father for the Church in India, Oceania or Africa.

But the true follower of Christ considers himself a slave. He, the Master; he considers it his greatest honor to humble himself as a servant of slaves of the Church. Slaves of Christ—servants of the Church—humble before God. Thank you for your sacrifices. We will send them to the Holy Father, who makes the distribution; that is the way the Society for the Propagation of the Faith works.

GOD LOVE YOU to C. L. aged eight, for $1—to help the children in Africa to go to school. . . . to S. C. Hospital, "This $15.50 was collected in the operating room. Our doctors, once in a while, are apt to use a little 'profane language.' To try to stop this they are reminded of the Mission Box on the desk in the office." . . . to the U.S.N. enlisted men, who contributed $40 for a perpetual membership in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. . . . to L. F. for $8. "My two brothers, sister and I earned this money by picking berries." . . . to L. P. M. "Next week my company goes out on maneuvers for a month. Here is $25 I will save for you." . . . to M. T. "I am thirteen years old, and I held a penny carnival in my yard. Enclosed is $2.00 which was collected."

A LINK BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH: St. Theresa, the Patroness of the Missions, said the rosary "to like to keep chains linking earth to heaven; one of the extremes is in our hands; the other is in the hands of the Blessed Virgin." The "rosary" of the Workmen's Society will help remind you to offer prayers for all the world. This rosary is designed so that each decade has beside it a different color, representing each of the five continents of the world. For an offering of $2 and your request, we will send you this Workmen's Society Rosary.

Get out this column, pin your sacrifice to it, and send it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 308 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N.Y.; or your Diocesan Director, Very Rev. Msgr. John E. Randall, 88 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

21 Tons More Than Last Year, Clothing Campaigners Report

A total of 250,666 pounds, contributed in the Thanksgiving Clothing Collection in 1955, topped the year previous by 21 tons according to the Rev. E. Leo McMannus, director.
