Club that the entertainment media have not attained a level consonant with the nation's material and scientific progress.

MORALITY IN THE MOVIES has declined. There is need for a clean-up of adult drama on Broadway. Popular songs of the era generally are of low tone.

Catholics should take an active interest in television and guard against its misuse.

'LITTLE JOHNNY JOHNS', musical play by George M. Cohan, is recited at Holy Family Church for production Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 24 and 25 in the parish auditorium. Shown above in rehearsal act: (from left) Clayton Coxy, Howard Knapp and Winifred McLaughlin, who have leading roles in the production.
