

Seneca Falls Council Lists Charter Members Night

Seneca Falls—The annual old-timer and charter member night will be held at the Knights of Columbus Home, Seneca Falls, on Tuesday, Jan. 17. The traditional ham and cabbage supper will be served by the committee.

Guests at the supper will be James McKeon and Patrick Clery, the two remaining charter members of the Seneca Falls Council, 222, which received its charter in 1887. Pat Clery was the first grand knight of the council.

Stephen Byrne is chairman of the dinner, assisted by Paul McNaney, Anthony Finelli, Paul Lopez, John Salotti, William Lawler and Edward Landenberger. Charles S. Feigly will be toastmaster.

K. of G. Party
Seneca Falls—Seneca Falls Council, Knights of Columbus will hold a "going-away" party for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Donnell of Seneca Manor. Mr. O'Donnell is employed by the Syracuse Electric Products Company and is being transferred to Boston, Mass.

Chairman of the party is William Ryan, assisted by Leon Zelen, Albert Caporci, Edward Curt and Coleman Connel. A buffet luncheon will be served, followed by dancing.

Seneca Falls On
Seneca Falls—The N. M. S. Euchari team was the winner of the play-off series ending the first round of play at the K. of C. Rooms last week. A new point system of scoring was used, which proved to be very satisfactory.

Results of the play-offs were as follows:

S. M. S.	346 points
Moore	337 points
K. of C.	310 points
V. F. W.	304 points
Elks	254 points
Legion	246 points

League standings at the end of the first round are:

K. of C.	6	1
V. F. W.	3	2
S. M. S.	3	2
Moore	3	2
Elks	2	3
Legion	0	5

On Wednesday, Jan. 11 the tournament will begin the second round of play at the Moore Rooms, W. Raymond St.
