

A gentleman is a man who can make a woman feel like a lady. — O. A. Matilda, "Life in Quotable Form."

Serve Coca-Cola at home

OPTIC-EASER... $3.95

Francis T. Steed Gerould's INC. PHARMACY

KAIN'S SERVICE STATION... GAS - OIL - BATTERIES - LUBRICATION - WASHING

NOTICE The Jefferson Hotel Dining Room Will Be OPEN All Winter

Sheely Bros. FLORISTS... Flowers For All Occasions

HOWARD J. GRISWOLD FLORIST... Gifts—Hallmark Greetings Cards

ELEANOR V. McMAHON GENERAL INSURANCE... 311 ROBINSON BLDG.

J. P. & M. SULLIVAN'S... RUGS DRAPERIES FURNITURE APPLIANCES

An invitation to THE Mark Twain HOTEL... Enjoy the friendly atmosphere of Elmira's finest hotel.

Rings Of Friendship

NAZARETH COLLEGE Alumnae Association will honor Mrs. E. Marie Jones...

USO To Mark 15th Anniversary

Geneva — The fifteenth anniversary of the USO will be celebrated in Geneva with open house and presentation of awards to volunteers...

Engagements

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Lodge St. of Bath have made known the engagement of their younger daughter, Elizabeth Marie to John J. Mullaney...

The announcement was made at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zydanowicz...

Miss Lodge is a graduate of Haverling Central School, class of 1933...

Mr. Mullaney is a graduate of Corning Free Academy, class of 1953...

Mr. Ambrosone graduated from Corning Free Academy and attended Niagara University...

A spring wedding is planned.

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kies of East Corning announce the engagement of their daughter Pauline Ann to Michael Charles Ambrosone...

Miss Kies graduated from Northside High School and is now employed in the office of the Industrial Engineering Department of Corning Glass Works.

Mr. Ambrosone graduated from Corning Free Academy and attended Niagara University...

A spring wedding is planned.

Corning Couple Moves To Chicago

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. W. Vincent Schriber of 11 Roosevelt St. plan to move Jan. 27 to Chicago where Schriber has accepted a position as assistant to the vice president in charge of production at the E. R. Moore Company...

Mr. and Mrs. Schriber have been actively affiliated with the affairs of St. Vincent de Paul Church, Schriber is a past grand knight of Columbian...

They are the parents of four children, John and Monica Mary, who are students at St. Vincent School and William and Theresa at home.

Schriber has resigned his position as plant industrial engineer at the Preswarp Plant of Corning Glass Works...

Dance Successful In Painted Post

Painted Post — About 125 men and women attended the special round-and-square dance social sponsored by the Catholic Women's Club of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church...

While the party was sponsored more as a social function than a fund raising project of the club, some funds were realized from the affair...

Success of the dance is expected to bring about additional parties of that kind in the near future...

Don Smalley's orchestra from Montour Falls played for dancing from 8 till 1. Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Griffin Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. David A. Mannaux were co-chairmen of arrangements.

Funeral Rites Conducted For 5 In Corning Area

Five deaths were reported in the Corning area during the past week. They are:

Corning — Mrs. Elizabeth Graffouliere, wife of John B. Graffouliere of 159 Wall St., died Friday, Jan. 20, 1956, in Corning Hospital following an extended illness.

The body was at the family residence from Sunday afternoon until Tuesday morning when prayers were said, followed by Requiem Mass at St. Mary's Church. Burial took place in St. Mary's Cemetery...

She was a sister of the late Attorney Thomas E. Rogers, well known criminal lawyer and an aunt of the late Attorney Charles E. McManus...

Surviving are: one sister, Mrs. Emma C. McCaul of the same address; a niece, Miss Esther Rogers, also of Corning; two nephews, Leo Rogers of New York City and Thomas Rogers, Curtin of Buffalo...

Corning — The funeral of Daniel H. Collins of 361 E. Third St. was held Wednesday, Jan. 18, with prayers at the Poland Funeral Home followed by Requiem Mass celebrated in St. Patrick Church by the Rev. William Cannon, pastor.

Father Cannon also officiated at the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery. Burial was by Joseph Perle, Frank O'Brien, Frank Bierwiler, Edward Meyers, Donald M. Gustina and Clarence Fermer.

Mr. Collins, a retired New York Central RR employee, died at his home Sunday afternoon, Jan. 15, 1956 following a two year illness. His condition has been critical for the past three months.

The son of the late Michael and Margaret Dell Collins, he was born in Campbell Nov. 15, 1882.

He married the former Dorrit Allen of Galeton, Pa. in St. Patrick Church, the marriage being performed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Walter J. Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Collins celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1950.

Mr. Collins retired in 1950 as a foreman with the New York Central Railroad. He was a member of St. Patrick Church and its Holy Name Society.

Surviving are: his wife; one daughter, Mrs. John Short Jr., of Corning; one sister, Mrs. Mary Weigand of Horseheads; a grandson, Jack Collins of Corning and a nephew, Bishop Francis J. Green of Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Corning.

Bath — The Rosary was recited for Mrs. Monika Bunn Rook, 82, at the Waldo Funeral Home here Sunday, Jan. 15, with services held the following morning from St. Plus Church, Cohocton...

Mr. Rook died Friday evening, Jan. 23, 1956 in the Waldo Convalescent Home.

Bath — Requiem Mass was celebrated Saturday, Jan. 21 at St. Mary Church with the Rev. Henry C. Manaley as celebrant, for Lewis Glosick, 43, of 132-W. Morris St., Bath automobile dealer, who died Jan. 19, 1956.

The body was at the Kagan Funeral Home where the family received friends on Thursday and Friday. The Rosary was said at the funeral home a day evening with the ritual of Bath Lodge of Elks the same evening. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Bath.

Mr. Glosick was born March 9, 1912, at Windber, Pa., the son of Joseph and Mary Lasswick Glosick.

A graduate of Haverling Central School, he was a member of St. Mary Church, Bath Lodge of Elks, Bath Lions Club, Corning Council, Knights of Columbus, Loyal Order of Moose at Hornell and the Bath Rod and Gun Club.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Bertha Roy Glosick; two sons, Lewis R. and James, at home; his parents, now of Bath RD.; two brothers, Stanley of Bath and Thomas of Irwin, Pa.; seven sisters, Miss Rosalie Glosick and Mrs. Mary Shear of Bath; Mrs. Fred Hipp of Trenton, N.J.; Miss Julia Glosick of Buffalo; Mrs. Agnes Baker of Hammondsport; Mrs. Eleanor Rudick of New York City and Mrs. Evelyn Glenn of Bath.

Corning — Mrs. Rose M. Roman of 152 E. First St. died at her home last Sunday evening, Jan. 22, 1956, after having been in the church hall last Saturday poor health since September, 1955.

Prayers were said Thursday morning of this week followed by Requiem Mass in St. Patrick Church. Burial was in St. Mary Cemetery, with Poland Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

A native of Tioga, Pa., she was the daughter of Edward and Margaret Cullinan Rogers. For many years she taught in a business school in Corning and for 20 years as an elementary teacher in the public schools here.

In 1906 she became the wife of Dr. John L. Roman, the ceremony being performed in St.

William Hallahan Honored At Testimonial Dinner

Corning — Functions of the Federal Home Loan Bank were discussed last Friday evening by William J. Hallahan of Washington, D. C. formerly of this city, as honored guest at a dinner of Corning Savings and Loan Association officers, directors and members of the Corning bar.

The dinner was a testimonial to the former Comptroller who was named a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by President Eisenhower last Fall. He is one of three members on the board which administers the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York and which is the fiscal agent for the local Loan Association.

The dinner was held at the Balton Steubert Hotel club rooms. Speaking briefly following the dinner were Supreme Court Justice John C. Wheeler, County Judge Clarence H. Brisco, and City Judge Charles H. Githler.

Mr. Hallahan is a Corning native and a graduate of Corning Free Academy. He was graduated from Syracuse University and from Georgetown Law School at Washington, finishing his studies there after World War II.

He entered service in the latter as a private and was separated as a major. For nine years he served as clerk and counsel to the House of Representatives Committee on Banking

Adoration Group Columbia, S. C. — (RNS) — A branch of the Nocturnal Adoration Society, first of its kind authorized at an Army installation, has begun its activities at Fort Jackson. More than 40 Catholic servicemen spent the eve of the first Friday in prayer and meditation at one of the Fort's chapels.

54th Anniversary Marked By Couple

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. William McIntyre, 181 Dwight Ave., celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary Sunday Jan. 22 with members of their family.

Resident of the area for nearly 40 years, Mr. McIntyre is a retired New York Central Railroad employe.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clancy of 213 Pine St. and family entertained the family at dinner. Mrs. Clancy is the former Genevieve McIntyre.

The McIntyres also have three other daughters, Miss Catherine McIntyre at home; Mrs. George Oliver of Corning and Mrs. Clinton Stroup of Manalapa, Pa. and three sons, Francis of Rochester, William of Charlotte, N.C. and Robert of Houston, Texas.

Attending the dinner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Troup and family, Miss Catherine McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Clancy and family and two sisters of Mrs. McIntyre, Miss Julia and Miss Lucy Stetley, both of Corning.

Recipe for Wine Barbecued Steak?

PHONE 2-5262

for your free copy of "Come to our Barbecue"

BRADY'S LIQUOR STORE Southport Shopping Center

HE CAME TO US FOR $600

He's regularly employed in the Elmira Area

He has a worthwhile reason for borrowing

He's prepared to pay in regular installments

He's now a confirmed Chemung Canal Trust Co. Customer

CHEMUNG CANAL TRUST COMPANY

Water at State St. TIME PLAN OFFICE: 204 E. Water St. Elmira, New York Dial 8131 W. Church St. near Hoffman Member of Federal Reserve System Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation