

A gentleman is a man who can make a woman feel like a lady.—O. A. Reith, "Life in Quotable Form"

Serve Coca-Cola at home

REPTILE-EASER
Kills ticks, fleas, lice, and other parasites on your pet.

Francis T. Sisco
Gerould's PHARMACY
So. Main and Hudson Streets
ELMIRA, N. Y.

KAIN'S SERVICE STATION
GAS - OIL - BATTERIES - LUBRICATION - WASHING
ACCESSORIES - TIRES - TUBES

NOTICE
The Jefferson Hotel Dining Room Will Be OPEN All Winter Serving Sunday Dinners From 12:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M.

Sheely Bros. FLORISTS
D. J. FROSOLONE, Mgr.
Flowers For All Occasions

HOWARD J. GRISWOLD FLORIST
Gifts—Hallmark Greeting Cards
"You Can't Enough To Find The Very Best"

ELEANOR V. McMAHON
GENERAL INSURANCE
311 ROBINSON BLDG. Dial 6751 or 2-1198

J. P. & M. SULLIVAN'S
FOR THE FINEST IN RUGS - DRAPERIES - FURNITURE - APPLIANCES

An invitation to THE Mark Twain HOTEL
Enjoy the friendly atmosphere of Elmira's finest hotel.

Funeral Rites Conducted For 5 In Corning Area

Five deaths were reported in the Corning area during the past week. They are:
Corning — Mrs. Elizabeth Graffouliere, wife of John B. Graffouliere of 158 Wall St., died Friday, Jan. 20, 1956, in Corning Hospital following an extended illness.
The body was at the family residence from Sunday afternoon until Tuesday morning when prayers were said, followed by Requiem Mass at St. Mary Church. Burial took place in St. Mary Cemetery with the A. W. Bailey and Sons funeral home in charge of arrangements.
She was born in Morris Run, Pa., July 5, 1874, the daughter of John and Catherine McAvoy Hayes.
Surviving are: her husband; two daughters, Miss Lauretta Graffouliere and Mrs. Clement C. Potts, both at home; two brothers, James Hayes of Lamba Creek, Pa., and Bernard Hayes of Carrolltown, Pa.

Rings Of Friendship

NAZARETH COLLEGE Alumnae Association will honor Mrs. E. Beatrice Jones and Miss Rosemary White for 25 years service on the faculty at a banquet at the Powers Hotel, Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 8:30 p.m. Theme of the dinner is "Rings of Friendship" signifying that alumnae may recognize other graduates by their Nazareth College rings. Here from left Mrs. Donald Starkweather, chairman of decorations; Mrs. Warren Phillips, chairman and Mrs. Jones view the "ring of friendship."

USO To Mark 15th Anniversary

Geneva — The fifteenth anniversary of the USO will be celebrated in Geneva with open house and presentation of awards to volunteers, at the USO Club, 107 Seneca St. on Saturday, Feb. 4, according to Dr. James S. Albert, chairman of the local USO Committee.
Participating in the Geneva celebration will be Major General Wycliffe E. Steele, command officer, Saratoga Air Force Base, leading div. officials, and representatives of veterans organizations, service clubs and the clergy.
Dr. Albert said that since its origin ten months before America's entry into World War II, the USO has firmly established itself as the primary link between the serviceman and the civilian community.

Engagements

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Lodge Sr. of Bath have made known the engagement of their younger daughter, Elizabeth Marie to John J. Mullaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mullaney, 104 West Third Street, Corning.
The announcement was made at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zydandwicz, sister of the bride-elect.
Miss Lodge is a graduate of Haverling Central School, class of 1953, and attended the Highland Hospital School of Nursing.
Mr. Mullaney is a graduate of Corning Free Academy, class of 1953, and was graduated from Alfred State Technical Institute in 1955. He is employed by the Burroughs Business Machine Company in Elmira.
No date has been set for the wedding.

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kies of East Corning announce the engagement of their daughter Pauline Ann, to Michael Charles Ambrosone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ambrosone of 209 West First Street.
Miss Kies graduated from Northside High School and is now employed in the office of the Industrial Engineering Department of Corning Glass Works.
Mr. Ambrosone graduated from Corning Free Academy and attended Niagara University where he was studying to be a chemical engineer. He is now employed as manager of the National Army Store.
A spring wedding is planned.

Corning Couple Moves To Chicago

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. W. Vincent Schriber of 11 Roosevelt St. plan to move Jan. 27 to Chicago where Schriber has accepted a position as assistant to the vice president in charge of production at the E. R. Moore Company, a textile manufacturing firm.
Mr. and Mrs. Schriber have been actively affiliated with the affairs of St. Vincent de Paul Church. Schriber is a past grand knight of Corning Council, Knights of Columbus; and his wife served for two years as chairman of the study group on social studies of Corning Chapter, American Association of University Women.
They are the parents of four children. John and Monica Mary, who are students at St. Vincent School and William and Theresa at home.
Schriber has retained his position as plant industrial engineer at the Pressware Plant of Corning Glass Works, a position he has filled for the past five years.

Dance Successful In Painted Post

Painted Post — About 125 men and women attended the special round-and-square dance sponsored by the Catholic Women's Club of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in the church hall last Saturday evening.
While the party was sponsored more as a social function than a fund raising project of the club, some funds were realized from the affair. Mrs. Thomas E. Kelley, club president reports. Success of the dance is expected to bring about additional parties of that kind in the near future, she reported.

Don Smalley's Orchestra From Montour Falls Played For Dancing

Don Smalley's orchestra from Montour Falls played for dancing from 9 till 1. Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Griffin Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. David A. Mammaux were co-chairmen of arrangements.

William Hallahan Honored At Testimonial Dinner

Corning — Functions of the Federal Home Loan Bank were discussed last Friday evening by William J. Hallahan of Washington, D. C., formerly of this city, as honored guest at a dinner of Corning Savings and Loan Association, officers, directors and members of the Corning bar. The dinner was a testimonial to the former Corningite who was named a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by President Eisenhower last Fall. He is one of three members on the board which administers the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York and which is the fiscal agent for the local Loan Association.
The dinner was held at the Bayton Steuben Hotel club rooms. Speaking briefly following the dinner were Supreme Court Justice John C. Wheeler, County Judge Clarence H. Erlace, and City Judge Charles H. Githler.
Mr. Hallahan is a Corning native and a graduate of Corning Free Academy. He was graduated from Syracuse University and from Georgetown Law School at Washington, finishing his studies there after World War II.
He entered service in the latter as a private and was separated as a major. For nine years he served as clerk and counsel to the House of Representatives Committee on Banking.

54th Anniversary Marked By Couple

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. William McIntyre, 181 Dwight Ave., celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary Sunday Jan. 22 with members of their family.
Resident of the area for nearly 40 years, Mr. McIntyre is a retired New York Central Railroad employe.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clancy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Troup and family, Miss Catherine McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Clancy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clancy and family and two sisters of Mrs. McIntyre, Miss Julia and Miss Lucy Staley, both of Corning, other daughters, Miss Catherine McIntyre at home; Mrs. George Oliver of Corning and Mrs. Clinton Stroup of Manassas, Pa., and three sons, Francis of Rochester, William of Charlotte, N.C. and Robert of Houston, Texas.
Attending the dinner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Troup and family, Miss Catherine McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Clancy and family and two sisters of Mrs. McIntyre, Miss Julia and Miss Lucy Staley, both of Corning.

Recipe for Wine Barbecued Steak?

PHONE 2-5262
for your free copy of "Come to our Barbecue"
BRADY'S LIQUOR STORE
Southport Shopping Center

HE CAME TO US FOR $600

He's regularly employed in the Elmira Area

He has a worthwhile reason for borrowing

He's prepared to pay in regular installments

He's now a confirmed Chemung Canal Trust Co. Customer

CHEMUNG CANAL TRUST COMPANY

Water at State St. TIME PLAN OFFICE 204 E. Water St. Elmira, New York Dial 8131
W. Church St. near Hoffman
Member of Federal Reserve System Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation