'Belles On Their Toes' Set For Mercy High Stage

Belles on Their Toes, a three act comedy chosen for the annual school play at Our Lady of Mercy High School, will be enacted Friday, Feb. 10, and Saturday, Feb. 11 in the school auditorium.

The Gilberths who became known in Cheaper By the Dozen presented at Mercy in 1950, find themselves left on their own, with mother in Europe on business and the housekeeper gone.

THE "DOZEN" decide to show how reliable they are; so, they decide to cut down expenses by making their own rent low and on amusements by doing a lot of swimming. They rent mother's room to a gentleman doing research on the Revolutionary War.

That they manage or be organized in the verdict laid down by snoopy Cousin Laura who is about to step in when the children come down with chicken pox and are quarantined.

DURING THIS time Anne, the oldest, falls in love with Doctor Bob. Ernestine's boyfriend sneaks in, and in their own unique way the "dozen" accidentally scare off mother's last student.

The cast includes: mother, Sharon Murnighan; Ann, Barbara Fiecitello; Ernestine, Kay Barrett; Martha, Marilyn Farrell; Rosemary, Sharon O'Brien; Lillian, Mary Ellen Baker (who'll sing "Your Mother and Mine"); Laura, Kathleen Cleary; Dr. Bob, A. J. Stephany; Al, Bob Mason (who'll do the charleston); also Jack Clarq, Bob Dasch, Tom Schug, Fred Lehner, Gary Voby, and Tom and Jerry Van Strydonck, twins.

'Adorable Creatures' Movie Condemned

New York—(NC)—A French-made motion picture, "Adorable Creatures," released by Continental Distributors of America, has been evaluated in Class C—condemned — by the National Legion of Decency.

In the announcement of this action, the Legion stated the following objection to the picture: "This film, in the story it tells, condones immoral actions. In treatment, it seriously offends Christian and traditional standards of morality and decency by reason of suggestive costuming, dialogue and situations.

Founder of Catholic Drama Guild Answers Modern Need For Religious Play Revival

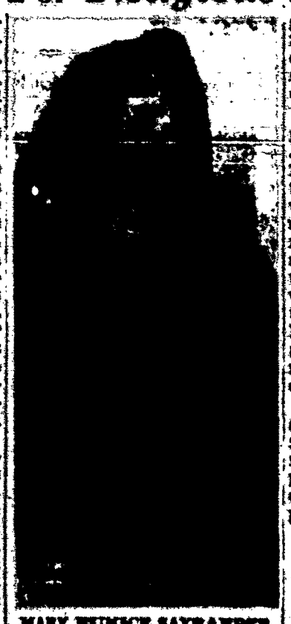
Mary Productions, a religious drama guild of the metropolitan New York area founded by a former Rochesterian, Mary Eunice Sayrahder, will present an evening of 'Marian' entertainment at New York's Xavier Theater on Feb. 12.

Miss Sayrahder, who is the wife of Joseph Spagnola, was born in Rochester where she made her first stage appearance with the magician Thurston. After attending Monroe High School and the Furlong Dramatic School, she did radio bit parts over stations WHAM and WHEC.

She became a charter member of the Rochester Blackfriars Guild and received her first contact with Catholicism. Journeying to New York City, she entered the Irvine Drama School and there met her husband.

AT THE CHURCH of St. Francis of Assisi, New York, she was baptized a Catholic in 1948. Slowly her destiny in theatre crystallized. She did research on the history of Church drama from the time of the famed Miracle Plays down to present day and saw the modern need for religious dramatic revival.

Spagnola joined the Army soon after their marriage and was assigned to the South Pacific. While awaiting his return, Miss Sayrahder went on U.S.O. tour and did several Broadway bit parts. With the U.S.O., she presented original character sketches which she describes as "a combination of the types executed by Ruth Draper and Imogene Coca."



MARY EUNICE SAYRAHDER

In 1946, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spagnola moved into a small apartment in Brooklyn and organized Mary Productions. Miss Sayrahder went to work in earnest, writing, directing, producing, and acting in dozens of comedies and dramas.

LATER, THEY moved to their present home in Dumont, New Jersey and the work continued. During 1954, the 'Marian Year,' the Spagnolas were swamped with requests from schools and drama groups for scripts. All reproduction was done by hand and mimeographed. Plays, written by Mary Eunice Sayrahder, went all over the U.S., as well as to Japan, Australia, England, Ireland, South America, India and Africa. Most of these plays may be presented currently without paying royalties.

Miss Sayrahder offers her scripts to all fund-raising hopefuls. Where charity is concerned race, color, or creed are unimportant, she believes. Mary Productions welcomes actors of all persuasions.

"We form good plays," say the Spagnolas, "where storming virtue instead of wins and violence, goodness instead of selfishness, all works having the three main elements of humor, a bit of education, and inspiration. In other words, an audience ought to enjoy itself through laughter, learn a little something, and feel a spiritual uplift!"

English Comedy 'White Sheep' Next At Aquinas

St. Genesius Club of Aquinas Institute has chosen the White Sheep of the Family, an English comedy success for its second play of the season to be presented on Thursday, Feb. 9 and Saturday, Feb. 11 in the school auditorium.

The story is concerned with an English family trying to keep up the appearance of respectability by rather questionable means.

Comedy situations result from the unexpected visits of the local Vicar and the Police Commissioner, played by Ray Buchanan and Dennis Byrne respectively.

LEADING PARTS are handled by Vince Wiseman and Mary Kay Gaugel supported by Margaret Farrell, John Callaghan, Linda Casey, Gene Michaud and Linda Gaugel.

Technical assistance is being supervised by stage manager, Mike Belanger and technicians Jim Sullivan, Frank DeLucia, Gene DePrez and Jim Hendel.

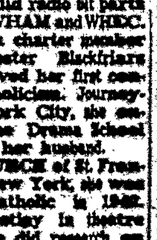
Clifton Springs Card Party Listed

Clifton Springs — Rosary Society of St. Felix Parish, Clifton Springs, will hold its annual card party in St. Felix Hall, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 14.

Refreshments will be served. Mrs. James Flanagan is chairman.

Catholic Hour Lists Convert Maker

Washington —(NC)— Father John A. O'Brien, noted for his convert work and author-in-residence at the University of Notre Dame, will be the speaker on the four Sunday broadcasts during February of the Catholic Hour, heard over Rochester station WHAM.



Fr. O'Brien

The Catholic Hr. . produced by the National Council of Catholic Men with headquarters here, is broadcast from 2 to 2:30 p.m. on Sunday. The title of Father O'Brien's series will be "God and Courage."

His four topics will be: "The Conquest of Fear," "The Stairs of Adversity," "The Challenge of Life," and "The Victory of Faith."
